Please Make Your Gift to the 2023 Annual Catholic Appeal

Walking on the road with Jesus

The Annual Catholic Appeal offers a wonderful opportunity to answer the call “Walking on the road with Jesus.” We invite you to see this year’s appeal as an opportunity to reclaim our identity, a sense of ourselves, as God’s pilgrim people who are on the way, on the road with Jesus. And as we walk together, we are changed.

This week, we ask our OSP members to answer the call of Father Pat McGrath and Cardinal Cupich by supporting the Annual Catholic Appeal. To view Father McGrath's message visit the Old St. Pat's Website at www.oldstpats.org. Your donations enable archdiocesan initiatives that complement our ministries at Old St. Pat's such as:

- Funding the growing requests for services from Catholic Relief Services – both locally and abroad
- Ensuring financially challenged Parishes receive funds to remain open and minister to their community
- Providing scholarships and funding for Parish schools
- Violence reduction and respect for life programs

As we contemplate God’s many gifts to us, we can also reflect on our gratitude. Your financial support for the work of our parish, our archdiocese, and the Church throughout the world is one way to express this gratitude. Please give what you can to the 2023 Annual Catholic Appeal.

To support the Annual Catholic Appeal is easy:

- Scan the QR code and follow the prompts
- Mail a check to
 - Annual Catholic Appeal
 - 835 N. Rush St.
 - Chicago, IL 60611
- Make an online gift at www.annualcatholicappeal.com
- Return in-pew envelope available on Sunday, February 12th

Please select Old St. Patrick’s as your Parish when making your ACA donation.

No money donated to the Annual Catholic Appeal has been, or will be, used to defray expenses related to misconduct issues.*

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The heart with which we offer our good deeds matters as much as the deeds themselves. For Christ, the law is more than a code of conduct. It's a mindset.

©LPI

GOSPEL MEDITATION

©LPI

Jesus explains that He did not come to abolish the law, but to fulfill it!

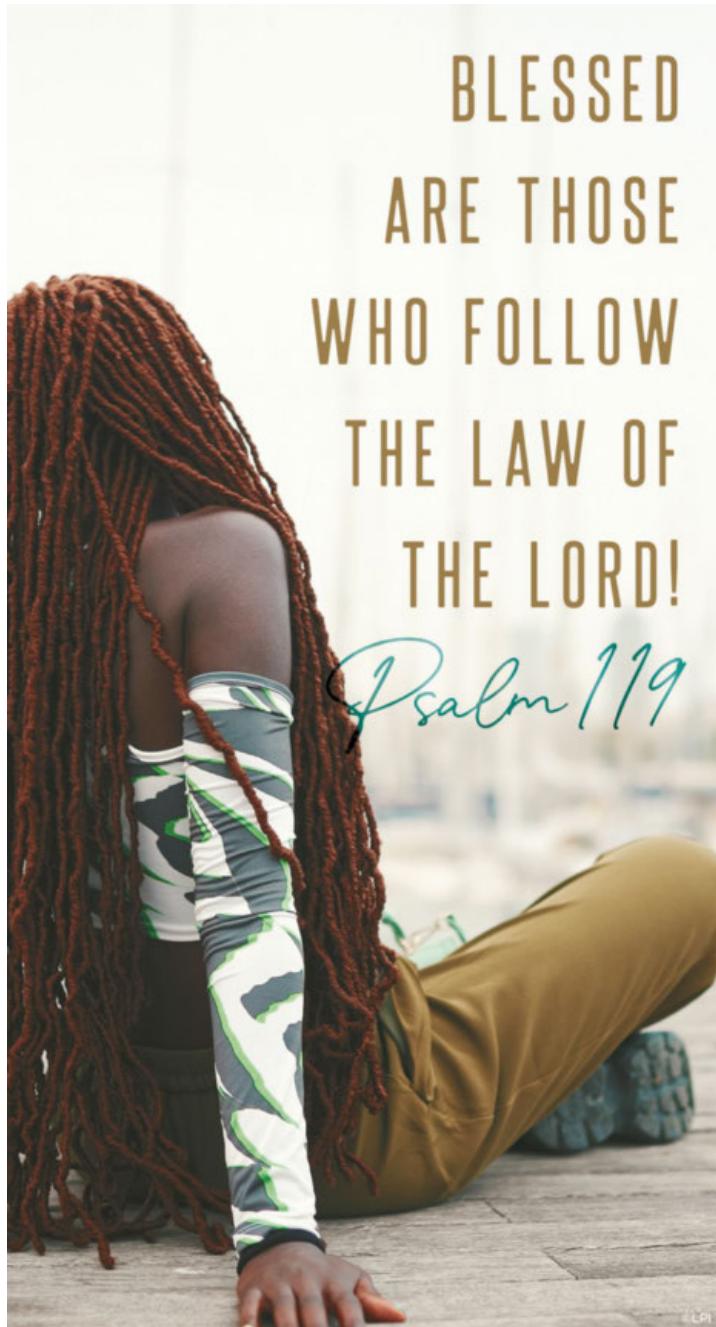

He teaches about the importance of fulfilling the Law of God by giving us a deeper understanding of the law, explaining that it is not just about outward behavior, but also about inner motivations, attitudes, and intentions. He emphasizes that it is not enough to simply obey the law, but to go beyond it in love and mercy.

The teachings of Jesus are important for believers to understand in order to live a life according to the will of God. Jesus explains the importance of striving to live lives of humility, gentleness, and mercy instead of pride and anger. Jesus encourages believers to love their enemies instead of holding grudges against them and to remember to pray for those who persecute them.

As we meditate on this passage, we can ask ourselves how we might apply its teachings to our own lives. Love demands extraordinary things. We can ask ourselves what practical steps we can take to live in greater alignment with God's Law, and to become more compassionate and loving people. By following the teachings of Jesus, we can live lives that are pleasing to God. Let us pray that the Holy Spirit will guide us as we reflect on these powerful words of Jesus. Blessed are those who follow the law of the Lord.

BLESSED
WHO FOLLOW
THE LAW OF
THE LORD!

Lenten Day of Prayer - Homecoming

Lenten Day of Prayer: Homecoming
February 25, 8:30am – 4:00pm | Morton Arboretum, Lisle, IL
Facilitator: Al Gustafson | Cost: $60

The stories referred to as the gospel within the gospel, a scene of homecoming captured in a Rembrandt painting, quiet structured reflection that will include time for a winter walk, the company of 20 fellow seekers, a beautiful, paneled room with a fireplace, a light breakfast and healthy lunch, these are the elements that will make up our Lenten Day of Prayer. The cornerstone of our day will be Luke chapter 15, the stories of the lost sheep, the lost coin and the lost son, through which we will explore the themes of homecoming, affirmation, and reconciliation. The day is designed for you and God to enjoy together, to deepen your identity as God's beloved and empower you to love as God loves. Bring your desire and sincerity; and trust the Spirit will take of the rest.

Go and Do Likewise: Living the Gospel

We hear the Gospel proclaimed every Sunday. Perhaps we even read the Gospel as a personal spiritual practice. But where can we go if we just want to talk with others about what we hear in the Sunday Gospels?

Go and Do Likewise: Living the Gospel is a thirty minute session, scheduled for five Sundays in Lent, that invites us into dialogue with the Sunday Gospel and one another.

Resourced by new reflections written for us by theologian, poet and storyteller Jack Shea, each session will offer time for quiet reflection and conversation in small groups. In engaging in these dialogues with the Gospel and each other, we hope to surface new insights to help deepen our faith, as well as to identify new actions that will enliven and build up community among us.

Sundays: February 26, and March 5, 12, 19, 26
10:15 – 10:45 am

Old St. Patrick's Fellowship Hall | 625 W. Adams Street

No registration is required. Join us as often as you wish.

Is it possible to think about racism in a way that empowers Catholics to be part of dismantling it?

Maureen O'Connell is professor of Christian ethics at LaSalle University. She is also a member of Philadelphians Organized to Witness, Empower, and Rebuild (POWER), an interfaith federation of 90 faith communities committed to making Philadelphia the city of "just love" through a more just wage for workers, fair funding for public schools, immigration reform, and decarceration.

*Chicago is routinely recognized as one of the most segregated cities in our nation.
Is it possible to consider new ways of being neighbors?
Is it possible to re-consider what it means to be a neighborhood?*

Tonika Johnson,
Social Justice Artist

Janell Nelson,
Design Leader,
Englewood Arts Collective

The acclaimed Folded Map Project visually connects residents who live at corresponding addresses on the North and South Sides of Chicago and investigates what urban segregation looks like and how it impacts Chicago residents. What started as a photographic study quickly evolved into a multimedia exploration with video interviews of residents. The project invites audiences to open a dialogue and question how we are all socially impacted by racial, economic, and institutional conditions that segregate the city.

Is it possible that the church can help us think about the human community in a new way?

A priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago, Fr. Ken has served in a variety of ministries that have included: Associate Pastor at St. Michael in Orland Park, Vice Rector and Dean of Formation at Niles College Seminary, Chaplain/Director of the Sheil Catholic Center at Northwestern University, Pastor of Saint Clement in Lincoln Park, Vicar for the Professional and Pastoral Development of Priests, and most recently, Administrator of Old St. Patrick's Church. Concurrently, Fr. Simpson has also worked as a firefighter and EMT and served as a Chaplain to several Fire Departments.

Immigrant and Refugee Ministry

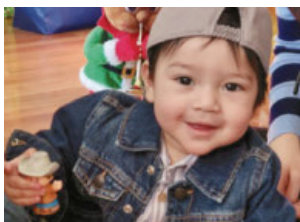

IRM's first refugee resettlement of 2023

... took place this past week—helping a family of four (a mother and three children, ages 8-13) from Myanmar (formerly Burma) settle into an apartment on Chicago's north side. Heartland Alliance found the apartment for the family and will assist them with the rent for several months, in addition to help with enrolling the children in school, learning English, and employment. Thanks to the generous donations of many of you to January's "household shower," several teams of IRM members were able to clean up the apartment, and outfit it with everything they will need--new towels, bathroom supplies, new comforters, sheets and pillows, pots/pans and dinnerware—and much more for their 2-BR apartment, as well as to leave a generous supply of groceries in their refrigerator and pantry.

Our partner, Chicago Furniture Bank (CFB), serves as an intermediary between Chicagoans who have extra furniture and those who need it. For a modest fee, CFB provides furnishing packages to our families that includes a sofa, armchairs, dressers, tables, rugs, lamps and more, helping them to sleep in their own new bed and share a family meal at a kitchen table. (Note: You can do some good with your unwanted furniture items by scheduling a furniture donation pick-up with them. Since the CFB gives the furniture to needy families, there is a "suggested donation" based on the size of the pickup. Tax receipts are available. In 2022 CFB helped to furnish 4,000 homes—some of them for our refugee families. See more info at www.chicagofurniturebank.org)

Our Honduran family enjoys another milestone.

Baby Ian turned "1" last week and IRM members Lisa Burkhardt and Peggy Burke were invited to his birthday party. The family continues to do well—dad Juan Carlos has a new job at WeatherTech in Bolingbrook, son Denilson is learning English and son Oliver has been delighted to finally begin to use the snowblower for his fledgling business that was donated to him by IRM member, Maureen Hellwig. Happy birthday, Ian!

Welcome Corps—new federal program introduced to let small groups of private citizens sponsor refugees ...

Last month the State Department launched a program, which will enable everyday Americans to help refugees adjust to life in the U.S. These small groups of five (or more) can apply to privately sponsor refugees to resettle in America, and be responsible for raising their own money to help the refugees during their first 90 days in the country. Assistance would include everything from greeting refugees at the airport to finding them homes and getting kids enrolled in school during their first 90 days in the U.S.

This initiative will roll out in two phases. In phase one, launched in the first half of 2023, private sponsors will be matched with refugees already approved for resettlement. In the second phase, private sponsors would be able to identify refugees abroad they'd like to help and then refer those people to the Refugee Assistance Program and assist them once they arrive in the U.S. Its goal is to line up 10,000 Americans who can help 5,000 refugees during the first year of the program. Find more information—including weekly emails and a Zoom orientation--at welcomecorps.org

The Immigration & Refugee Ministry (IRM) is so grateful to Old St. Pat's members for their generous, ongoing support of our efforts—a sincere thanks to all. The need is great. Giving to Old Saint Patrick's Church

*"As Christian stewards, we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord."
- U.S. Catholic Conference of Bishops*

Your generosity to Old St. Pat's is a resounding yes to God's call to faith-filled stewardship! Guided by the Holy Spirit, we continue to strive to lead a movement of change for good in our church and world. You are true collaborators in the work of sharing the loving mercy of Jesus.

Gifts to old St. Pat's help fund the myriad ministries and initiatives here at Old St. Pat's, from hosting Sunday masses to weddings and baptisms, to prayer and retreat experiences, to catechesis and sacramental preparation, to lectures, classes and workshops. Your support helps ensure we can continue to be the vibrant, welcoming, justice-minded Catholic community we strive to be.

Saint Apollonia

Saint of the Day for February 12, 2023

Saint Apollonia's Story

The persecution of Christians began in Alexandria during the reign of the Emperor Philip. The first victim of the pagan mob was an old man named Metrius, who was tortured and then stoned to death. The second person who refused to worship their false idols was a Christian woman named Quinta. Her words infuriated the mob and she was scourged and stoned.

While most of the Christians were fleeing the city, abandoning all their worldly possessions, an old deaconess, Apollonia, was seized. The crowds beat her, knocking out all of her teeth. Then they lit a large fire and threatened to throw her in it if she did not curse her God. She begged them to wait a moment, acting as if she was considering their requests. Instead, she jumped willingly into the flames and so suffered martyrdom.

There were many churches and altars dedicated to her. Apollonia is the patroness of dentists, and people suffering from toothache and other dental diseases often ask her intercession. She is pictured with a pair of pincers holding a tooth or with a golden tooth suspended from her necklace. Saint Augustine explained her voluntary martyrdom as a special inspiration of the Holy Spirit, since no one is allowed to cause his or her own death.

Reflection

The Church has quite a sense of humor! Apollonia is honored as the patron saint of dentists, but this woman who had her teeth extracted without anesthetic surely ought to be the patron of those who dread the chair. She might also be the patron of the aging, for she attained glory in her old age, standing firm before her persecutors even as her fellow Christians fled the city. However we choose to honor her, she remains a model of courage for us.

Saint Apollonia is the Patron Saint of:
Dentists
Relief from Toothache
