INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Want to be a real revolutionary? Defy the fallen impulses of human nature. Love your enemy. Pray for your persecutor. Give to those who would take. We can do hard things, Christians. We aren't perfect, but our God is.

©LPI

GOSPEL MEDITATION

©LPI

In the continuation of reading about the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus continues to call us. His call isn't easy, but as Christians we see the beauty in being called to be the light of the world. When thinking of myself answering the call to be light, I immediately think about eliminating the wicked. But who are the wicked? They are also the children of God, my siblings, neighbors, even at points in my life I have been the wicked.

As the wicked and as a sinner, I am called by God to be more even when our individualistic society tells us, "an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth." I am quick to anger and pride blinds me in situations when Jesus calls me to go the extra mile and be merciful. It is easy to react with vengeance, especially in our communities filled with division and generations of oppression. Jesus isn't necessarily telling us to always turn our cheek when the persecutors and enemies strike us, but to think of how to respond with mercy. So how does one pick up their cross and bring light to the world?

This Black History Month, we are reminded of those that have brought light into the world like Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr's preaching of, "Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that." We are reminded of St. Josephine Bakhita's forgiveness and love for those that enslaved and tortured her. We are reminded that amongst great darkness, they were light through their advocacy without resorting to vengeance or violence.

We strive to follow their example through OSP's vision of "leading a movement of change within the Catholic church marked by radical inclusivity, exquisite worship, and transformative kinship," Jesus calls us to dive into deeper discernment with great mercy and think about whether our actions towards our neighbors are feeding our pride or bringing light into the world.

So today we remember that...

We are ALL called to the table
We are called to be compassionate
We are called to be light
We are called to love

Go and Do Likewise: Living the Gospel

We hear the Gospel proclaimed every Sunday. Perhaps we even read the Gospel as a personal spiritual practice. But where can we go if we just want to talk with others about what we hear in the Sunday Gospels?

Go and Do Likewise: Living the Gospel is a thirty minute session, scheduled for five Sundays in Lent, that invites us into dialogue with the Sunday Gospel and one another.

Resourced by new reflections written for us by theologian, poet and storyteller Jack Shea, each session will offer time for quiet reflection and conversation in small groups. In engaging in these dialogues with the Gospel and each other, we hope to surface new insights to help deepen our faith, as well as to identify new actions that will enliven and build up community among us.

Sundays: February 26, and March 5, 12, 19, 26
10:15 – 10:45 am

Old St. Patrick's Fellowship Hall | 625 W. Adams Street

No registration is required. Join us as often as you wish. We welcome the conversation!

*Chicago is routinely recognized as one of the most segregated cities in our nation.
Is it possible to consider new ways of being neighbors?
Is it possible to re-consider what it means to be a neighborhood?*

The acclaimed Folded Map Project visually connects residents who live at corresponding addresses on the North and South Sides of Chicago and investigates what urban segregation looks like and how it impacts Chicago residents. What started as a photographic study quickly evolved into a multimedia exploration with video interviews of residents. The project invites audiences to open a dialogue and question how we are all socially impacted by racial, economic, and institutional conditions that segregate the city.

Call To Action!

CALL TO ACTION!

Our friends at Fourth Presbyterian Church have found themselves graciously hosting migrants from Central and South America. Approximately 370 migrants arrived last week via Texas and are currently being offered a place to stay at the former Tremont Hotel on Chestnut Street. Fourth Presbyterian was not given advance notice of the migrants' arrival, and in turn, is looking for the Chicago community's assistance to help welcome these asylum seekers.

The Fourth Presbyterian Social Service Center and Meals Ministry are working with these families to provide them with food and clothing. Donations of clothing, blankets, winter coats/gloves/shoes, and food are greatly appreciated.

Please visit www.oldstpats.org/ospirm to volunteer or make donations. Let's work together to create communities of welcome, hospitality, safety and hope for our immigrant brothers, sisters and siblings in Christ

Immigrant and Refugee Ministry

A Lenten Faith Journey

February 22 - 25, Lent Begins

Ash Wednesday

Begin this Lent with ashes and fasting for the social and personal sins that deny dignity to immigrants. If we are to be "ambassadors of Christ" we must "... be reconciled to God." [See 2 Cor 5:20-6:2]

Thursday

Today's reading has God's people entering a new land. [See Dt 30:15-20] Today's refugees and asylum seekers come from Venezuela, Haiti, Ukraine, and many other countries. This Lent learn their stories: Venezuelan migrants - <https://cmsny.org/venezuelan-migrants-return-acosta-092022/>

Friday

"This rather is the fasting that I wish... releasing those bound unjustly." [See Is 58:1 - 9a] Learn about inhumane and unjust deportation that continues in Title 42* and new Biden policies**. Pray for migrants, refugees, and asylum seekers.

* immigrantjustice.org/press-releases/scotus-ruling-title-42-case-means-asylum-seekers-will-continue-be-denied-access

Saturday

"...Remove from your midst oppression, false accusation and malicious speech;" [See Is 58:9b] To accomplish this tall order we must begin with ourselves. When have you leaned on power, lies and gossip? Repent!

Jesus help us to experience the Father's Love.

Lord, we give you our love, with the heart of a child.

*Help us to hear those words afresh
and to allow them to shape our lives.*

Grant us a spirit of true humility that enables us to approach you with empty hands.

Grant us a spirit of openness to new ideas.

Forgive us that our thoughts are so easily cluttered by our knowledge and experience of life that we are unable to hear anything that is new.

Grant us a spirit of simple trust.

Women and Men of Faith

Saint Conrad of Piacenza

Saint of the Day for February 19, 2023

Saint Conrad of Piacenza's Story

Born of a noble family in northern Italy, Conrad as a young man married Euphrosyne, daughter of a nobleman.

One day while hunting he ordered attendants to set fire to some brush in order to flush out the game. The fire spread to nearby fields and to a large forest. Conrad fled. An innocent peasant was imprisoned, tortured to confess, and condemned to death. Conrad confessed his guilt, saved the man's life, and paid for the damaged property.

Soon after this event, Conrad and his wife agreed to separate: she to a Poor Clare monastery and he to a group of hermits following the Third Order Rule. His reputation for holiness, however, spread quickly. Since his many visitors destroyed his solitude, Conrad went to a more remote spot in Sicily where he lived 36 years as a hermit, praying for himself and for the rest of the world.

Prayer and penance were his answer to the temptations that beset him. Conrad died kneeling before a crucifix. He was canonized in 1625.

Reflection

Francis of Assisi was drawn both to contemplation and to a life of preaching; periods of intense prayer nourished his preaching. Some of his early followers, however, felt called to a life of greater contemplation, and he accepted that. Though Conrad of Piacenza is not the norm in the Church, he and other contemplatives remind us of the greatness of God and of the joys of heaven.
