CORPUS CHRISTI

By Brenda Chavez

Director of Young Adult Ministry and Neighborhood Engagement

My favorite thing to do on my worst days is attend mass and consume the Eucharist. It doesn't have to be a Saturday night or Sunday. Even if it is a Wednesday, I'll try to sneak away and find a mass near me. There are many things that help me on my bad days, such as taking a walk, listening to music, and much more. But there is nothing like walking into a sacred space, dragging along my troubles, worries, and doubts, and plopping down in a pew. I look around and notice my Catholic siblings and wonder, "What are they bringing with them today?"

Especially this month celebrating Pride, I pray for our LGBTQ+ siblings and for the discrimination and troubles they experience. On today's Feast of Corpus Christi, Jesus invites us all to the table to share the breaking of bread and drinking from the cup. All being welcome to the table is important to me because it reminds me that I am not alone with my troubles. To me, being Catholic means living out our faith in community and going to mass is a beautiful example of that.

Jesus reminds us that he is the living bread and above everything, he is what gives us life. Even though attending mass and consuming the Eucharist isn't the only part of being Catholic, today we are reminded of the importance of remaining in Jesus and him in us through the Eucharist. So I hope you were able to make time for mass today with all your troubles and if not, I hope you can attend soon, whether it is in person or virtually. All are welcome to the table, to the altar, in breaking of the bread, drinking from the cup... as a community.

HAPPY PRIDE MONTH

Let us join together, not only this month
but every day, to celebrate and join in prayer with our LGBTQ+ community.

THE RETURN OF THE COMMON CUP

On this Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, we celebrate and honor the presence of Christ in all forms—especially as we gather through our Eucharistic celebration. We are overjoyed to announce that the Archdiocese of Chicago has lifted the last remaining COVID restrictions and has permitted the Common Cup - the Blood of Christ - to be distributed again at Masses. Indeed, the fullest sign of the Eucharistic Banquet is to eat and drink.

Beginning July 9th we will once again offer the Blessed Sacrament under both species - bread and wine. There will be more information shared as we get closer to July 9th about the logistics of the Cup returning to Mass. In the meantime, we are grateful for your support, presence, and understanding during the time of the pandemic and looking forward to this return.

OSP HOSPITALITY AND EUCHARISTIC MINISTER TRAINING

Our Vision Statement pillar of 'exquisite liturgy' finds its foundation in the many people who make our liturgies at Old St. Patrick's a welcoming, vibrant, and lifegiving experience. If you would like to join our liturgical ministry team, we will be holding training sessions for Hospitality Ministers and Eucharistic Ministers on Sunday, June 4th after the 5pm Mass and on Sunday, June 11th after the 11am Mass.

Since hospitality is a hallmark of who we are at Old St. Patrick's, ALL ministers will be trained as Hospitality Ministers. Those who wish to become Eucharistic Ministers will be trained immediately following. The training will be approximately one hour.

If interested in becoming a part of OSP's liturgical ministries, please RSVP to one of the trainings using the QR code.

For further questions, please email liturgy@oldstpats.org

A SUMMER OF FAITH, HOPE AND LOVE | ONLINE CHAPEL

We Catholics refer to faith, hope and love as the theological virtues because it is only through our relationship with God that our capacity for these virtues expands. Therefore, prayer can be understood as anything that increases our faith, hope and love. Furthermore, neuroscience and some of the latest psychological research reveals that our brains are hard wired for these virtues. Evolution has made us spiritual creatures and developing these virtues is essential to the advancement of our species.

This will be the backdrop for our chapel readings and prayer this summer. We will explore faith in June, hope in July and love in August. Please join us for some sacred silence and reflective reading in a welcoming community of fellow seekers. It is a path to deepen your relationship with God and so expand your capacity to live with greater faith, hope and love.

The chapel schedule is below, and you are welcome to join us whenever you are available. Register at bit.ly/OnlineChapel to receive the Zoom link to participate. "It's one thing hearing about this immigration crisis in the news. It's another thing altogether to meet a family in crisis who is alone and scared. I want to demonstrate to my third grader what God's love in action looks like and let her know that her paying attention to the needs of others in our community made a difference in this family's life."

Jjeoma Achara-Abrahams

In early May when Saige, an FXW third grader, was dropped off at school, she noticed a family in the park across the street and was concerned that they might be homeless. They were a young couple with a baby—and it was raining. She asked her dad to check on them, which he did. They were the Valdivieso family, who had just arrived on a bus from Texas, originally from Venezuela, and they didn't speak any English.

After getting them something to eat, some clothes and supplies for the baby and themselves, a call to 311 advised that the family should be dropped off at a police station. However, because of the influx, families were spending days there before they get placed at shelters, which are full.

The Abrahams family called around to a number of local organizations with no luck. They found temporary housing for the young Valdivieso family on their own and with their own support plus the generous financial help of some other FXW families, and their own church, the Progressive Baptist Church, have been able to support the family to date, including finding an immigration attorney for them. They were very moved by this young family's story of walking and taking any type of moving vehicle through eight countries over an eight-month period to get from Venezuela to the Texas border—and how they were willing to risk everything to give their baby, Christopher, a future with opportunities that he would never have in Venezuela.

An OSP parishioner, Kerry Brown Hasbrook, eventually put them in touch with OSP's Immigrant & Refugee Ministry (IRM). Our chair, Maureen Hellwig, connected them with Catholic Charities, which has approved "All Kids" health care coverage for Christopher, the Link card applications, and other programs available to them.

IRM is presently seeking permanent housing for the Valdivieso family and hopes to help with finding a job as well. Thanks to the very generous support of our OSP parishioners, we have supplies from our household collection earlier this year—new sheets, towels, comforters, dinnerware, pots/pans, etc.—everything they will need to live comfortably. Once the apartment search is finalized, we will be able to provide furniture and new beds, utilizing our partner, the Chicago Furniture Bank. A team of IRM family liaisons have already been put in place: Giovana Quigley, Mary Ann McNiece, Peggy Burke and Sr. Jane Zimmerman, who will guide the family through many of the necessary steps to acclimate them to living here—using the transit system, ESL classes, grocery shopping, etc.

FAREWELL AND BEST WISHES KAYLA JACKSON

Farewell to Kayla Jackson, who as Director of Social Justice at Old St. Pat's for five years, has tirelessly and lovingly been the IRM's "go to" OSP staff person.

We were sad to say good-bye to our dear friend and colleague at a reception for her (with some friends from Racial Equity & Justice-REJL and the Green Team) but wish her only the best with her new position at her Alma Mater, Dominican University. Another exciting new chapter will be her upcoming June wedding to Arthur. Our best wishes to the new "Mr. and Mrs."

THE IMMIGRANT & REFUGEE MINISTRY (IRM) IS SEEKING AN AFFORDABLE 2 BR APARTMENT FOR AN INCOMING IMMIGRANT FAMILY

Finding affordable housing is a real challenge for resettling immigrant families. If you—or someone you know—has a nice 2 BR apartment available for rent in the Chicago area in the next few months, IRM would like to connect with you. IRM will accompany this asylum-seeking or refugee family and provide personal assistance and support to the family, i.e., finding a job, registering children for school, etc. The apartment will ideally be located near public transportation and be approximately $1,500 monthly. Renting to this family will be an important element in launching them successfully.

Please contact immigration@oldstpats.org with any questions or information. Thank you.

WELLNESS CORNER

Getting Back to Normal

Getting back to normal post pandemic was something we all dreamed about for 2+ years. Many of us are excited to once again, be gathering and socializing. But for some, the FOMO (fear of missing out) experienced during the pandemic has been replaced with FONO (fear of normal). This can range from a continued concerns of getting sick to being stressed about how to resume socialization.

It's important to realize living through the pandemic was a traumatic event we collectively experienced. Below are some helpful tips for those who are feeling some post pandemic anxiety. Every one of us was impacted by the global pandemic so remember you are not alone in this.

RECOGNIZE AND ADDRESS YOUR MENTAL HEALTH CHALLENGES For many, a return to “normal” might mean addressing mental health challenges that intensified or arose during the pandemic. Nearly half of the Americans surveyed in a large NIH study said they suffered from anxiety or depression during the pandemic. Alcohol-induced deaths increased by 38%. Drug overdose death rates rose by 50% and 50% of young adults (ages 18-24) reported anxiety and depression symptoms in 2023. If you have a therapist, continue to talk about how you are doing. If you have recently developed stress and/or find yourself facing new mental health challenges, reach out to your support network and/or seek professional help.

OBSERVE AND ACCEPT HOW YOU FEEL When you are stressed, fearful, or uncomfortable, pause to think about what you are feeling and consider what is activating those feelings. Focus on ways to prepare for what comes next.

GO AT YOUR OWN PACE Make decisions that feel right for you. Start with being honest with yourself about limits, and don't feel bad if you're not ready to resume activities at your pre-pandemic pace. Many folks are reevaluating their priorities and how they choose to spend their time.

BE DIRECT ABOUT WHAT WORKS FOR YOU Try being direct when discussing plans with friends and family. Using “I” statements helps make it clear you are making decisions based on your personal needs. Being upfront can also put others at ease.

EXERCISE Moving your body is one of the best stress-reducing activities. Making time to walk or run outside, bike, dance, or practice yoga might be just what you need to find calm. Daily exercise naturally produces stress-relieving hormones and improves overall physical health.

WATCH WHAT YOU EAT AND DRINK Eating well and staying hydrated helps stabilize our mood. Limit your consumption of highly processed foods and use of alcohol and recreational drugs as a means to unwind; they don't actually reduce stress and often worsen it.

GET ENOUGH SLEEP Our bodies and minds need rest to function properly.

SPEND TIME IN NATURE Time in nature reduces stress. Something as simple as tending to a garden or house plants or walking through a park can help calm you.

PRACTICE MINDFULNESS When you're stressed, the idea of meditating might seem impossible, but we know it can work. Start slow with breathing in a peaceful location, or sitting outside with a cup of tea (without scrolling through your phone!). Prayer, deep breathing, meditation, and mindful practices can train our brain to better manage stress. Consider apps such as Calm, Insight Timer, Headspace, or 10 Percent Happier.

FIND SUPPORT You don't have to suffer alone. Reach out to your network for support, whether it's a friend, family member, a licensed therapist, church community, or a support group. It's true that we are stronger together and opening up to talk about what we're feeling and thinking can help. If you live with a mental health condition or have a family member with a mental health condition, consider meeting with a licensed therapist to help you create an action plan.

PARTNERS RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (K-8th Grade)

The Partners Program offers thematic classes for children in preschool through Confirmation that enriches their understanding of God, the Church, sacraments, religious holidays, and values. The teachers use stories from Sacred Scriptures and religious textbooks in the classes.

Parents are expected to participate in workshops on the first Sunday of each month to help develop the monthly theme at home and foster the partnership. Classes are held twice a month on Sunday mornings from 10:15 to 11:30 in the Frances Xavier Warde School classrooms from September through April.

- First Communion typically takes place when a child is in 2nd grade. OSP requires one year of Religious Education PRIOR to registering for First Communion.
- Reconciliation typically takes place in 3rd grade.
- Confirmation is a two year process which begins in 7th grade.

To register, you must have a myOSP profile. If one is needed, please contact Katie Brandt at family.ministry@oldstpats.org. If you have a profile, please scan the QR Code to register.

Saint Barnabas

Saint of the Day for June 11, 2023

Barnabas, a Jew of Cyprus, comes as close as anyone outside the Twelve to being a full-fledged apostle. He was closely associated with Saint Paul—he introduced Paul to Peter and the other apostles—and served as a kind of mediator between the former persecutor and the still suspicious Jewish Christians.

When a Christian community developed at Antioch, Barnabas was sent as the official representative of the church of Jerusalem to incorporate them into the fold. He and Paul instructed in Antioch for a year, after which they took relief contributions to Jerusalem.

Later Paul and Barnabas, now clearly seen as charismatic leaders, were sent by Antioch officials to preach to the gentiles. Enormous success crowned their efforts. After a miracle at Lystra, the people wanted to offer sacrifice to them as gods—Barnabas being Zeus, and Paul, Hermes—but the two said, "We are of the same nature as you, human beings.
We proclaim to you good news that you should turn from these idols to the living God" (see Acts 14:8-18).

But all was not peaceful. They were expelled from one town, they had to go to Jerusalem to clear up the ever-recurring controversy about circumcision, and even the best of friends can have differences. When Paul wanted to revisit the places they had evangelized, Barnabas wanted to take along his cousin John Mark, author of the Gospel, but Paul insisted that since Mark had deserted them once, he was not fit to take along now. The disagreement that followed was so sharp that Barnabas and Paul separated: Barnabas taking Mark to Cyprus, Paul taking Silas to Syria. Later they were reconciled—Paul, Barnabas and Mark.

When Paul stood up to Peter for not eating with gentiles for fear of his Jewish friends, we learn that "even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy" (see Galatians 2:1-13).

Barnabas is spoken of simply as one who dedicated his life to the Lord. He was a man "filled with the Holy Spirit and faith.
Thereby, large numbers were added to the Lord." Even when he and Paul were expelled from Antioch in Pisidia—modern-day Turkey—they were "filled with joy and the Holy Spirit."

Saint Barnabas is the Patron Saint of Cyprus.
