INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

John the Baptist had been told that he would see the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. He listened, he believed, and he kept his eyes open. He was ready when God revealed the truth. Let's ask ourselves: are our eyes open? Are we ready?

©LPI

GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I was a kid, I remember the priest at Mass announcing, "The Lamb of God!" Frankly, it struck me as nonsense. I thought: Why in the world does God have a lamb? And where is this lamb?

John the Baptist sees Jesus coming toward him and announces, "Behold the lamb of God." His Jewish listeners knew what he meant. God's lamb is the thing that is sacrificed at the Jewish Passover and consumed by the participants. For almost a thousand years, lambs were ritually slaughtered and eaten in Jerusalem at Passover. The lamb meant sacrifice, freedom from sin, and communion with God. The Baptist is saying in effect, "This man will be ritually sacrificed and consumed so that God's people may be free from sin and united with God."

It's crucial to relate to Jesus as a friend, brother, teacher, and Lord of our lives. But we should also learn to interact with Him as our lamb of God. That means we intentionally place on him our sins, sadnesses, and hopes, and offer him to God. Then we consume him to make us free. This is what we do at every Mass. That's why he is the Lamb of God.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

"Children's Liturgy of the Word" (CLOW) Ministry is a special part of the family Sunday experience at Old St. Patrick's Church for children ages three through second grade. We will be in person, and Parent Volunteers will work with the children during the 9AM Mass on select dates for children to learn about the readings of the day in language and activities they'll easily understand.

Children will gather around the baptismal font at 8:55AM, and will process up with parent volunteers, receive a blessing from the presider/congregation, and then go into the rectory. They will return after the homily to sit with their families for the remainder of the Mass.

The dates are: Jan 8 & 15
 Feb 5 & 12
 Mar 5 & 12

HealingTogether@Home - January/February 2023

Support in dealing with the grief experience is a valuable way of helping yourself or someone you know. Support groups often provide an opportunity for grieving persons to better understand the wide range of feelings and behaviors associated with grief. More importantly, support groups offer a safe place where people can come together for mutual support, to learn that their feelings are normal, and that one need not be alone.

HealingTogether@Home, hosted using the Zoom platform, has been organized for those who are grieving the death of a loved one: parent, spouse, significant other, sibling, family member, extended family member, friend...

Our program is offered over the course of seven consecutive weeks. Our groups are small by design so that they are comfortable and informal. Our next group is scheduled to begin on Thursday, January 26th.

Please register in advance: bit.ly/healingtogetherathome

In order to participate in any of the online chapels, you will need to register by going to contemplativecommunity.org and completing a simple registration form. THANK YOU ... THANK YOU ... THANK YOU ...

The Immigrant & Refugee Ministry (IRM) Housewarming Collection for Refugees that was held last Sunday in Hughes Hall was a huge success with your generous and enthusiastic support!

As you can see from the photo, we had many volunteers collecting an abundance of household items for five families—everything from quilts to can openers, towels and tea kettles—which will greatly help us to continue the work of resettling refugees and asylum seekers in the Chicago area throughout year. Sincere thanks to our generous donors and unselfish IRM volunteers who make this good work possible.

"I will make you a light to the nations..." Isaiah 49:6

Who has God made as a light to the nations? In the Gospel, John says "On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain..." The clear answer is Jesus. God entered - migrated - to earth to become a light to the nations. When we 'see the face of Christ' in others, we see a light to the nations. Migrants, refugees, asylum seekers also represent a light to the nations. What is it that we need to learn from them? The US Conference of Catholic Bishops gives us a clear objective for finding meaning in migration: Catholic Social Teaching on Immigration and the Movement of Peoples | USCCB Read and recognize our own migrating journeys here on earth and on to heaven.

<https://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/immigration/catholic-teaching-on-immigration-and-the-movement-of-peoples>

Reflect now on how our nation is responding to these 'lights to the nations.' Biden toughens border, offers legal path for 30,000 a month | AP News (<https://apnews.com/article/politics-mexico-immigration-af0643a4fb8f45388fe247e44c9b2c5e>) "...there is a 2 million-case immigration court backlog, so cases often are not heard for years." Holy God. Today, we remember Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s struggle for equality, justice, and dignity for African Americans that inspired so many other reform movements that seek to highlight the plight of the oppressed in society.

We pray that all of those in civil and religious authority be reminded that we all have been created in your image, and that there is an intrinsic dignity in each of us that calls for uplifting every man and woman, young and old.

We pray that Your Holy Spirit remind us all that you show no partiality with regards to nationality, race, ethnicity, or gender, and to do so is to go against your great commandment of love toward one another.

We pray that the church will not be complicit of injustice by being silent, but that it can rise up with a prophetic voice that speaks truth to power and advances the values of your Kingdom.

We pray these things in the name of our blessed redeemer, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Saint Devasahayam Pillai Saint of the Day for January 15, 2023

Saint Devasahayam Pillai's Story

Neelakandan Pillai was born into an affluent Hindu family in 1712. As a young man he went into the service of the royal household in India's Travancore province. Eventually put in charge of state affairs, Pillai became acquainted with Captain Eustachius De Lannoy, the Dutch naval commander who trained the king of Travancore's forces. Their relationship awakened Pillai's interest in the captain's Christian faith. At his baptism in 1745, Pillai chose the name Lazarus, or Devasahayam in the Malayalam language. His wife and other members of his family were baptized at the same time.

Soon after, Pillai's enemies convinced the royal court that he was using his position to force others to convert, leading to his imprisonment. European Christians in Travancore came to Pillai's defense, urging the king to release him. After three years the king complied under condition that Pillai go into exile to a hostile territory. Though beaten and tortured almost daily, Pillai consistently responded with kindness, openly praying for his captors. Shot to death by local soldiers in 1752, Pillai's body was transported to St. Xavier Church in Kottar. Later when his remains were interred beneath the altar, the site became a popular pilgrimage destination.

In 2012, Devasahayam Pillai became the first Indian layman not connected to any religious institute to be beatified. Ten years later he was canonized in Rome. His liturgical feast is celebrated on January 14.

Reflection

At the May 15, 2022, canonization Mass, Pope Francis said that the lives of the saints prove that holiness is not an unreachable goal accomplished by a select few but comes from acknowledging and sharing God's love. Pillai, he said, exemplified the Christian call "to serve the Gospel and our brothers and sisters, to offer our lives without expecting anything in return, or any worldly glory."
