GOSPEL REFLECTION

By: Polly Mulhearn
Advancement Coordinator
Sunday 26 February 2023

I have always been fascinated by this gospel – where Jesus is tempted by the Devil. When the devil delivers the temptations, they all sound really logical and pretty darn attractive. I have realized they are pretty relevant in my life and perhaps yours too.

The first temptation hits home for me the most though:

Right after Jesus is baptized, he's off to the desert to be tempted by the devil who says: "If you are the Beloved Son of God turn this stone into bread". We know that Jesus replied "Man does not live by bread alone"

Welllll..... good for Jesus - thank God he points the way. I am frequently unable to get to the source of nourishment that Jesus seems to have access to.

I'm Polly Mulhearn the Advancement Coordinator here at OSP and I consider myself a "foodie". Jesus may not live by bread alone, but give me a good baguette, some butter and I bet I could be tempted.... I get a hankering for something, I make a plan to fulfill it, invite friends to go to the awesome place I've scouted out, and it's delicious. I'm very capable of identifying exactly what I'm after and what I hunger for -- physically.

But spiritually and emotionally, --- I've been a hot mess. My hungers for love, attention, affection, and acceptance, to prove that I was worthy, have often led me to try and satisfy them with the wrong things. So when Father Hurley mentioned the Beloved Retreat to me in 2012 I thought what the heck why not give it a shot. I was hungering for reconciliation at this time in my life and felt like I was in a perpetual Good Friday loop.

While I did not share much on that retreat, it did lead me to wonder -- could God forgive me, could I actually FEEL myself to be a Beloved daughter of God? Could I believe that God's pleasure rests in me? Over time, the intimacy of the Beloved community enabled me to share my story with no judgments and I am nourished in the fact that I am loved and forgiven. Not every day, but most days.

However, you see, the thing about hunger is that even when I'm satisfied, I'm going to get hungry again. These days I have become more aware of my hungers. I want so much that I feel like a bottomless need machine. I hunger for love, a relationship, security, financial balance, forgiveness. I hunger to have my contributions in the world valued, and I want to be needed by others, loved.

When Jesus went to the river to be baptized – and he heard God say "You are my beloved Son, in you is my pleasure" -- I believe that Jesus' hunger was satisfied in his awareness of God's love for him and his real identity as the Beloved.

So let the foodie in me say to you as we celebrate in this Blessed Eucharist and the beginning of Lent together: Come join us at the table and bring whatever you hunger for with you and know that God will provide -- for you are a Beloved Child of God and in you is God's pleasure.

LENTEN RECONCILIATION SERVICE

Old St. Patrick's Church, 700 W. Adams, at 6:30 PM
 Tuesday, March 14th

To be part of a movement of change in the church and in our world, we must have the courage to look in the mirror we consider the opportunities we have been given - including the ones we have missed - to be bearers of Christ's love in the world. Let us join together as a community for an evening of prayer and reconciliation, with God, with our world, and with one another.

ONLINE CHAPEL - Lent: Turning To Jesus As Our Companion

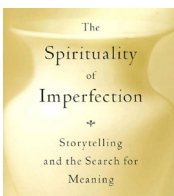

Jesus, whose yoke is easy and burden light, offers us a loving, empathic, and ever-present companionship. The grace of his presence is experienced through scripture, reflection, and community, wherever two or more are gathered in his name. So, please gather with us when you can. Our chapel prayer this Lent will use Sr. Joyce Rupp's brand new Lenten devotional, Jesus, Companion in My Suffering.

Please feel free to join us, occasionally or regularly, whenever you are available. There is no cost, and the schedule is below. Register to receive the Zoom link to participate. For further details about the experience go to www.contemplativecommunity.org

It is a book about storytelling and our search for meaning as we encounter life's inevitable difficulties and sufferings.

Part two of our discussion will take place on Saturday, April 1 or Tuesday, April 4.

March 8th | 6:30 PM | 625 W. Adams

Chicago is routinely recognized as one of the most segregated cities in our nation. Is it possible to consider new ways of being neighbors? Is it possible to re-consider what it means to be a neighborhood?

The acclaimed Folded Map Project visually connects residents who live at corresponding addresses on the North and South Sides of Chicago and investigates what urban segregation looks like and how it impacts Chicago residents. What started as a photographic study quickly evolved into a multimedia exploration with video interviews of residents. The project invites audiences to open a dialogue and question how we are all socially impacted by racial, economic, and institutional conditions that segregate the city.

Ken has served in a variety of ministries that have included: Associate Pastor at St. Michael in Orland Park, Vice Rector and Dean of Formation at Niles College Seminary, Chaplain/Director of the Sheil Catholic Center at Northwestern University, Pastor of Saint Clement in Lincoln Park, Vicar for the Professional and Pastoral Development of Priests, and most recently, Administrator of Old St. Patrick's Church. ## GO AND DO LIKEWISE: LIVING THE GOSPEL

Old St. Patrick's Fellowship Hall, 625 W. Adams, at 10:15 AM

Sundays during Lent (February 26th - March 26th)

We hear the Gospel proclaimed every Sunday. Perhaps we even read the Gospel as a personal spiritual practice. But where can we go if we just want to talk with others about what we hear in the Sunday Gospels? Go and Do Likewise: Living the Gospel is a thirty minute session, scheduled for five Sundays in Lent, that invites us into dialogue with the Sunday Gospel and one another. No registration is necessary.

Resourced by new reflections written for us by theologian, poet and storyteller Jack Shea, each session will offer time for quiet reflection and conversation in small groups. In engaging in these dialogues with the Gospel and each other, we hope to surface new insights to help deepen our faith, as well as to identify new actions that will enliven and build up community among us.

Join us as often as you wish. We welcome the conversation!

SHARE YOUR VOICE SUPPORT OUR PARISH

Would You Be Willing To Share Your Thoughts With Us?

The Archdiocese of Chicago, along with 16 other dioceses throughout the United States, is participating in an anonymous survey of parishioners called The Disciple Maker Index (DMI). This survey is designed to provide insights into the spiritual life of the parish and its members.

Cardinal Cupich is inviting all parishioners in the Archdiocese of Chicago to take part in the Disciple Maker Index survey. Your participation will help provide Fr. McGrath and our Old St. Patrick's ministerial leaders (staff and church leaders) with a better understanding of where to focus efforts and energies as we strive to grow in our faith and achieve our parish mission.

In the survey, you will find questions like: In what ways does our parish help you grow spiritually? How good are we at connecting you to others in the parish? In what ways do you feel invited to share your talents at our parish?

The survey takes about 10-15 minutes to complete, and it will be open for responses from February 22 - March 31.

To take the DMI survey, click on this link:
<https://portal.catholicleaders.org/d/gyp644>

All members of a household are encouraged to take this survey - using the above link or QR Code.

In the coming weeks, a paper version of the survey will also be available to be completed before or after Mass.

If you have any questions about the survey, please contact Bob Kolatorowicz at 312-831-9379 or bobk@oldstpats.org.

IMMIGRANT AND REFUGEE MINISTRY A Lenten Faith Journey February 26 - March 4, Week 1

First Sunday of Lent

Jesus is tempted in the desert. [See Mt 4:1-11] Our leaders give in to temptations of power, fear, and greed as they strive to eliminate migrants, refugees, and asylum seekers in the U.S. Pray for open hearts and minds.

Monday

"You shall love your neighbor as yourself." [See Lv 19:18] Our neighbors search for safety. Learn how our country responds and lead a response of love and dignity, for Afghans and Ukrainians fleeing their war torn countries.

Tuesday

Jesus teaches us the Lord's Prayer. "...on earth as it is in heaven." [See Mt 6:7-15] Are we following God's will on earth as it is in heaven? Speak out to oppose fee increases for immigrant citizenship process. Deadline is March 6!

Wednesday

"When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way," [See Jnh 3:1 - 10] Take time to read about decriminalizing immigration. Share the info with others and act today so that God knows we are changing evil ways.

Thursday

"Which one of you would hand his son a stone when he asked for a loaf of bread?" [See Mt 7:7-12] Migrants and refugees are asking for safety, food, dignity. Make sure they are not given a stone: Support Hope Border Institute in El Paso, TX.

Friday

God asks, "Is it my way that is unfair, or rather, are not your ways unfair?" [See Ez 18:25] We have a history of unfair immigration laws and now undocumented children brought by their parents are at risk: DACA is their protection.

Saturday

"Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you." [See Mt 5:43 - 48] Who are the enemies of our family - God's family? Pray for them and learn about the 'Neighbors not Strangers' program.

You are invited to view or download the entire Archdiocesan and Pastoral Migratoria Lenten Calendar here: bit.ly/PMLENT2023

BLACK CATHOLICS ON THE WAY TO SAINTHOOD

Venerable Pierre Toussaint (1776-1853)

Venerable Pierre Toussaint, a philanthropist and founder of many Catholic charitable works, was born a slave in Haiti and brought from Haiti to New York as an apprentice under a popular hairstylist in the city. He eventually became the most sought-after hairdresser of high society women. Upon the death of his master, he gained his freedom and quickly succeeded as one of the country's first black entrepreneurs. He became quite wealthy, but instead of spending lavishly on himself, he supported the Church and the poor. He and his wife sheltered orphans, refugees, and others out on the streets in their home. He founded one of New York's first orphanages and raised money for the city's first cathedral.

Servant of God Mother Mary Elizabeth Lange (1784-1882)

Servant of God Mother Mary Lange was born Elizabeth Lange, a native of the Caribbean, and believed to be Cuban born of Haitian descent. She was the foundress and first Superior General of the Oblate Sisters of Providence (1829-1832), the first religious congregation of African American women in the history of the Catholic Church. Mother Mary Lange practiced faith to an extraordinary degree. It was her deep faith – in close union with Jesus – which enabled her to persevere against all odds.

Venerable Henriette Delille (1813-1862)

Venerable Henriette Delille was born in New Orleans, Louisiana, where she would live her entire life. For the love of Jesus and responding to the Gospel's mandate, she was determined to help those in need. Henriette was also a person who suffered as she made her way through life, and she bore many crosses. She taught those around her that sanctity can be attained in following the path of Jesus. Henriette practiced heroic virtue. She had faith, lived in hope, and practiced love. She was compassionate, forgiving, and merciful. She believed in justice and was not afraid to do what was right in the eyes of God. God blessed her efforts and, in 1842, she founded the Congregation of the Sisters of the Holy Family.

Venerable Fr. Augustus Tolton (1854-1897)

Venerable Augustus Tolton was the first U.S. Roman Catholic priest publicly known to be black when he was ordained in 1886. A former slave who was baptized and reared Catholic, Tolton formally studied in Rome. He was ordained in Rome on Easter Sunday at the Archbasilica of St. John Lateran. "Good Father Gus," as many called him, was known for his eloquent sermons, his beautiful singing voice, and his talent for playing the accordion.

<https://tolton.archchicago.org/news/news-media>

Julia Greeley (1833 and 1848-1918)

Servant of God Julia Greeley was born into slavery in Hannibal, Missouri sometime between 1833 and 1848. Freed by Missouri's Emancipation Act in 1865, Julia subsequently earned her keep by serving white families in Missouri, Colorado, Wyoming, and New Mexico—though mostly in the Denver area. Julia entered the Catholic Church at Sacred Heart Parish in Denver in 1880. Every month she visited on foot every fire station in Denver and delivered literature of the Sacred Heart League to the firemen, Catholics and non-Catholics alike. She joined the Secular Franciscan Order in 1901 and was active in it till her death in 1918.

Sr. Thea Bowman, FSPA (1937-1990)

Sr. Thea Bowman, FSPA was a self-proclaimed, "old folks' child." Bowman was the only child born to middle-aged parents, Dr. Theon Bowman, a physician, and Mary Esther Bowman, a teacher. At birth, she was given the name Bertha Elizabeth Bowman. She was born in 1937 and reared in Canton, Mississippi. As a child, she converted to Catholicism through the inspiration of the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration and the Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity

*On this week when so many celebrate love, help us to celebrate Your love for us.
Help us remember that You love us completely.
Comfort us on those days when we feel disappointed and hurt by life.
Sharpen our awareness of those who feel unloved and unlovable.
Strengthen our resolve to be an agent of hospitality to the lonely,
of comfort for the frightened,
and of mercy for the hurting.*

Saint John Joseph of the Cross Saint of the Day for March 5, 2023

Saint John Joseph of the Cross' Story

Self-denial is never an end in itself but is only a help toward greater charity—as the life of Saint John Joseph shows.

John Joseph was very ascetic even as a young man. At 16, he joined the Franciscans in Naples; he was the first Italian to follow the reform movement of Saint Peter Alcantara. John Joseph's reputation for holiness prompted his superiors to put him in charge of establishing a new friary even before he was ordained.

Obedience moved John Joseph to accept appointments as novice master, guardian and, finally, provincial. His years of mortification enabled him to offer these services to the friars with great charity. As guardian he was not above working in the kitchen or carrying the wood and water needed by the friars.

When his term as provincial expired, John Joseph dedicated himself to hearing confessions and practicing mortification, two concerns contrary to the spirit of the dawning Age of Enlightenment. John Joseph of the Cross was canonized in 1839.

Reflection

John Joseph's mortification allowed him to be the kind of forgiving superior intended by Saint Francis. Self-denial should lead us to charity—not to bitterness; it should help us clarify our priorities and make us more loving. John Joseph is living proof of Chesterton's observation: "It is always easy to let the age have its head; the difficult thing is to keep one's own" (G. K. Chesterton, Orthodoxy, page 101).
