HOLY ENERGY

By: Keara Ette
Director of Ministries
Sunday, March 12, 2023

Image: Painting by Bryn Gillette
"Woman At The Well". Acrylic and pen on Wooden Panel. 30x60". Oct. 2019.
<https://www.bryngillette.com/blog/2019/11/9/the-woman-at-the-well-john-4>

As I get older (and perhaps busier, though that is arguable), the question of energy tends to keep coming up for me. I consider how much energy a new endeavor is going to demand of me and of course, how much energy my family and friends deserve from me. And the math associated with the energy in life can be a little less than straightforward. I mean, there is the natural energy that grace seems to send at different life moments, and then there is the energy that I realize I need to create to make it through the things that are particularly difficult and/or not in my wheelhouse. (I call this "manufactured energy" and it can be costly.) So the question on a loop is: How much energy do I have and how much (more) do I need?

So as I have been praying with the Gospel for this Sunday - the story of Jesus encountering the woman at the well - perhaps it makes sense that I noticed something about energy movement that I have not previously recognized in this story.

This time, I find it interesting that Jesus stays at the well and his followers - who have also been walking all morning - continue into the town to get food. Perhaps Jesus waits there because he is extra tired, or because his followers don't have the energy to handle the slightly chaotic scene that will undoubtedly unfold if he entered the town with them. Regardless of the reason, when a woman of the region comes to draw water (strikingly by herself and in the heat of the day - both potential signals of her marginal place in society), he asks her for a drink, presumably because he hopes to quench his thirst.

When she responds with shock and confusion, Jesus seems to see an opening, and he goes for it. No longer is he focused on liquid water from the well. Now he is going to draw her deeper - to help her identify the depth of her own thirst - her thirst for healing, for peace, for wholeness, for fullness of life. Jesus sees deep into the woman's soul and invites her to see who he truly is as well. As his disciples arrive and witness the end of the conversation, they say nothing as the woman abandons her water jar and goes back to the city to tell everyone about the encounter. Likely not having the energy or wherewithal to inquire about Jesus' conversation, the disciples focus on taking care of Jesus' practical needs. "Rabbi, eat," they urge him.

My energy-seeking heart now imagines Jesus taking in a deep sigh before he responds, basically, "I'm good now, thanks." Jesus' proverbial 'tank' seems to have been filled back up by the tender conversation - the personal connection - with this woman who was supposed to be the epitome of 'other' in the eyes of a Jewish rabbi. But instead, they each left quenched of thirst, relieved of hunger, and energized for the mission in front of them.

With the example and help of Jesus, may we commit ourselves to the moments of human connection through which the energy of Love might renew our world.

Called to Change, Connection & Community.

AT THE CROSSROADS SPEAKER AND DISCUSSION SERIES

March 8 and March 22 at 6:30 PM

Old St. Patrick's Church Fellowship Hall, 625 W. Adams Street | Chicago, IL

The questions are just as thought-provoking as they are important. We invite you to join us for the two remaining special evenings as together with highly regarded thought leaders, we explore questions of race, neighborhood, and church.

Doors open at 6:30PM for refreshments and informal gathering. Each program begins at 7:00 pm and ends by 8:15 pm. Limited free parking is available after 6 PM in the parking garage next to the 625 W. Adams building. For more information and to register please visit: oldstpats.org/at-the-crossroads

March 22nd | 6:30 PM | 625 W. Adams

Is it possible that the church can help us think about the human community in a new way?

A priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago, Fr. Ken has served in a variety of ministries that have included: Associate Pastor at St. Michael in Orland Park, Vice Rector and Dean of Formation at Niles College Seminary, Chaplain/Director of the Sheil Catholic Center at Northwestern University, Pastor of Saint Clement in Lincoln Park, Vicar for the Professional and Pastoral Development of Priests, and most recently, Administrator of Old St. Patrick's Church. Concurrently, Fr. Simpson has also worked as a firefighter and EMT and served as a Chaplain to several Fire Departments.

GO AND DO LIKEWISE: LIVING THE GOSPEL

Old St. Patrick's Fellowship Hall, 625 W. Adams, at 10:15 AM

Sundays during Lent (February 26th - March 26th)

We hear the Gospel proclaimed every Sunday. Perhaps we even read the Gospel as a personal spiritual practice. But where can we go if we just want to talk with others about what we hear in the Sunday Gospels? Go and Do Likewise: Living the Gospel is a thirty minute session, scheduled for five Sundays in Lent, that invites us into dialogue with the Sunday Gospel and one another. No registration is necessary.

Resourced by new reflections written for us by theologian, poet and storyteller Jack Shea, each session will offer time for quiet reflection and conversation in small groups. In engaging in these dialogues with the Gospel and each other, we hope to surface new insights to help deepen our faith, as well as to identify new actions that will enliven and build up community among us.

Join us as often as you wish. We welcome the conversation!

For more information, please contact Bob Kolatorowicz at: bobk@oldstpats.org

EVENINGS OF ADORATION AND CONTEMPLATIVE MUSIC

Old St. Patrick's Church, 700 W. Adams, Wednesdays

March 15th starts at 8:00 PM

March 29th at 7:00 PM

Please join members of the Old St. Pat's Community throughout the season of Lent for 4 evenings of Adoration. This experience will be hosted by Encounter younger adults and OSP's music ministry and open to anyone and everyone. Prayer, reflection, and guidance materials will be available for those praying in this way for the first time. No registration is necessary.

LENTEN RECONCILIATION SERVICE

Old St. Patrick's Church, 700 W. Adams, at 6:30 PM

Tuesday, March 14th

To be part of a movement of change in the church and in our world, we must have the courage to look in the mirror and consider the opportunities we have been given - including the ones we have missed - to be bearers of Christ's love in the world. Let us join together as a community for an evening of prayer and reconciliation, with God, with our world, and with one another.

ONLINE CHAPEL - Lent: Turning To Jesus As Our Companion

Jesus, whose yoke is easy and burden light, offers us a loving, empathic, and ever-present companionship. The grace of his presence is experienced through scripture, reflection, and community, wherever two or more are gathered in his name. So, please gather with us when you can. Our chapel prayer this Lent will use Sr. Joyce Rupp's brand new Lenten devotional, Jesus, Companion in My Suffering.

Please feel free to join us, occasionally or regularly, whenever you are available. There is no cost. Register to receive the Zoom link to participate. For further details about the experience go to www.contemplativecommunity.org

SHARE YOUR VOICE SUPPORT OUR PARISH

Would You Be Willing To Share Your Thoughts With Us?

The Archdiocese of Chicago, along with 16 other dioceses throughout the United States, is participating in an anonymous survey of parishioners called The Disciple Maker Index (DMI). This survey is designed to provide insights into the spiritual life of the parish and its members.

Cardinal Cupich is inviting all parishioners in the Archdiocese of Chicago to take part in the Disciple Maker Index survey. Your participation will help provide Fr. McGrath and our Old St. Patrick's ministerial leaders (staff and church leaders) with a better understanding of where to focus efforts and energies as we strive to grow in our faith and achieve our parish mission.

In the survey, you will find questions like: In what ways does our parish help you grow spiritually? How good are we at connecting you to others in the parish? In what ways do you feel invited to share your talents at our parish?

The survey takes about 10-15 minutes to complete, and it will be open for responses from February 22 - March 31.

To take the DMI survey, click on this link:
<https://portal.catholicleaders.org/d/gyp644>

All members of a household are encouraged to take this survey - using the above link or QR Code.

In the coming weeks, a paper version of the survey will also be available to be completed before or after Mass.

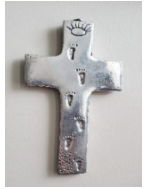

If you have any questions about the survey, please contact Bob Kolatorowicz at 312-831-9379 or bobk@oldstpats.org.

IMMIGRANT AND REFUGEE MINISTRY

A Lenten Faith Journey

March 12 - March 18, Week 3

Third Sunday of Lent

God rescues the children who cry out. [See Ex 3:1-15]

Do you hear the cries of the children ~ immigrants ~ who are detained inhumanely. Learn about the flaws of Inhumane Detention.

<https://www.americanprogress.org/article/immigrants-and-asylum-seekers-deserve-humane-alternatives-to-detention/>

"Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place." [See Lk4:24] Asylum seekers and refugees flee for their lives too, just like Jesus and the prophets. Reflect on what would make you flee, pray for those who have.

Tuesday

We are here because of our immigrant ancestors. Now, their descendants deny welcome to today's immigrants, just like the ungrateful servant. [See Mt 18:21 -35] Pray that God opens their eyes.

Wednesday

"This great nation is truly a wise and intelligent people." [See Dt 4:6] We do not look like a great nation when we refuse to welcome migrants and refugees. Catholic Social Teachings help us live as God's great nation!

Thursday

"Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters." [See Lk11:23] Gathering our family ~ immigrants and refugees, DACA children ~ is what God wants us to do! What more can we do so we are not against God?

Friday

St. Patrick's Day. "Straight are the paths of the LORD, in them the just walk, but sinners stumble in them."

[See Hos 14:10] Pray the Rosary for Migrants and Refugees as they walk the straight path.

Pray also for those who stumble that their hearts are opened.

<https://justiceforimmigrants.org/uncategorized/video-rosary-for-victims-of-human-trafficking/>

Saturday

"The one who humbles himself will be exalted." [See Lk 18:9-14] Reflect on the humility of migrants, refugees, and asylum seekers. Depending on God, on others, is humbling. Read the humbling Journeys of Immigrants.

You are invited to view or download the entire Archdiocesan and Pastoral Migratoria Lenten Calendar here: bit.ly/PMLENT2023

THE IMMIGRANT & REFUGEE MINISTRY (IRM) IS SEEKING AN AFFORDABLE 2 BR APARTMENT FOR AN INCOMING FAMILY

Finding affordable housing is a real challenge for resettling immigrant families. If you—or someone you know—has a nice 2 BR apartment available for rent in the Chicago area in the next few months, IRM would like to connect with you. IRM will accompany this asylum seeking or refugee family and provide personal assistance and support to the family, i.e., finding a job, registering children for school, etc. The apartment will ideally be located near public transportation and be under $1,500 monthly. Renting to this family will be an important element in launching them successfully.

Please contact Kayla Jackson at kaylaj@oldstpats.org with any leads or questions.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES TO LAUNCH A NEW ARCHDIOCESAN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM FOR ASYLUM SEEKERS IN LATE MARCH

IRM has worked with Catholic Charities to develop a program to serve asylum seekers bussed into the Chicago area from Texas. A number of Archdiocesan parishes have shown an interest with 11 already signing on. The goal is to engage 21 in this Parish Sponsorship Model. Parishes have the option of covering the cost of financially supporting a family of asylum seekers ($10,000), accompanying them, or both. Catholic Charities will provide the case management support for the families and are still figuring out options for housing and legal support for this program.

The Immigration & Refugee Ministry (IRM) is so grateful to Old St. Pat's members for their generous, ongoing support of our efforts—a sincere thanks to all. The need is great. Please go to oldstpats.org. Click on GIVE TO OSP (upper right-hand corner). Click on GIVE ONLINE and select IMMIGRANT AND REFUGEE FUND from the drop-down menu. If you are interested in supporting our efforts as a volunteer or have any ideas or questions, please contact Kayla Jackson at kaylaj@oldstpats.org

God of Resurrection, un-tomb and uncover all that needs to live in me. stretch me into much greater openness. Help me to be attentive to the process. The flower is contained in the seed. Everything needed is present. We have to grow up in every way into Christ. Easter is Your promise that light will overcome darkness, and love will conquer death. We celebrate Easter, every time we reach out to the marginalized, and the least among us. We celebrate Easter every time we strive to make this great country of ours a beacon of hope and justice in a world hungry for peace and so in need of your Love. Change our lives, change our hearts to be messengers of Easter joy and hope.

Blessed Angela Salawa

Saint of the Day for March 12, 2023

Angela served Christ and Christ's little ones with all her strength.

Born in Siepraw, near Kraków, Poland, she was the 11th child of Bartłomiej and Ewa Salawa. In 1897, she moved to Kraków where her older sister Therese lived. Angela immediately began to gather together and instruct young women domestic workers. During World War I, she helped prisoners of war without regard for their nationality or religion. The writings of Teresa of Avila and John of the Cross were a great comfort to her.

Angela gave great service in caring for soldiers wounded in World War I. After 1918, her health did not permit her to exercise her customary apostolate. Addressing herself to Christ, she wrote in her diary, "I want you to be adored as much as you were destroyed." In another place, she wrote,
"Lord, I live by your will. I shall die when you desire; save me because you can."

At her 1991 beatification in Kraków, Pope John Paul II said: "It is in this city that she worked, that she suffered and that her holiness came to maturity. While connected to the spirituality of Saint Francis, she showed an extraordinary responsiveness to the action of the Holy Spirit" (L'Osservatore Romano, volume 34, number 4, 1991).

Humility should never be mistaken for lack of conviction, insight or energy. Angela brought the Good News and material assistance to some of Christ's "least ones." Her self-sacrifice inspired others to do the same.

Blessed Angela Salawa is a Patron Saint of: Domestic workers
