By: Father Michael Simone, S.J.
Associate Pastor
Sunday, March 26, 2023

An essential theme of John's Gospel is that Christ is life itself. In this, he is distinct from other living creatures, which are dependent on God for life. Jesus shares a unique intimacy with the Father, and the consequence of this pure love is pure and eternal life. Throughout John's Gospel, anyone who believes in Jesus and lives according to his example and teaching receives a share in this pure life. In this Sunday's Gospel reading, John shows his readers the power of Jesus' life even over death.

John does this first by proving that Lazarus is really dead. Jesus delays his trip to Judea. John's Gospel presents this as a pedagogical act. Jesus wants to make sure his disciples understand his power over death and its source in the Father (It's also likely that threats to Jesus's safety force him to delay). When Jesus does arrive, the mourning is underway and he himself weeps over his friend. As the tomb is opened, Martha fears the stench of death, and Lazarus, when he appears, is wrapped like a corpse in linens. Every one of these elements confirms that - no mistake - Lazarus is truly dead.

But when the voice of Life itself appears and calls Lazarus forth, death retreats in confusion. The unique life that Jesus shares with the Father is so abundant that Jesus can share it out like water from a spring. In the presence of such refulgent life-giving energy, death can make no further claims and Lazarus goes free.

On one level, John presents this miracle as the climax of Jesus' ministry. Starting with the Wedding at Cana, Jesus' miracles have grown in power so that now he can command mortality itself. On another level, John presents this narrative to foreshadow Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection, which is the result of the author of life being put to death.

Living out this Gospel in our own discipleship requires more than generic belief in the resurrection. It requires faith in Christ's power over all forms of death: illness, hopelessness, fear, violence, poverty, alienation. These "little deaths" sap human life even as we continue to live. We disciples, plunged into Jesus' life through baptism, have a responsibility to confront death wherever we find it. We do this by believing in Christ even when such faith seems absurd. We do this through works of mercy and kindness, through the establishment of kinship, through the inspiration of hope. Most radically, we overcome death through love, the essence of Jesus' relationship with the Father and the source of their unique life. Every time our faith inspires another's freedom, we stand at the door of a tomb, and with Christ's own voice shout, "Come forth!"

GO AND DO LIKEWISE: LIVING THE GOSPEL

Old St. Patrick's Fellowship Hall, 625 W. Adams, at 10:15 AM
Sundays during Lent (February 26th - March 26th)

We hear the Gospel proclaimed every Sunday. Perhaps we even read the Gospel as a personal spiritual practice. But where can we go if we just want to talk with others about what we hear in the Sunday Gospels? Go and Do Likewise: Living the Gospel is a thirty minute session, scheduled for five Sundays in Lent, that invites us into dialogue with the Sunday Gospel and one another. No registration is necessary.

Resourced by new reflections written for us by theologian, poet and storyteller Jack Shea, each session will offer time for quiet reflection and conversation in small groups. In engaging in these dialogues with the Gospel and each other, we hope to surface new insights to help deepen our faith, as well as to identify new actions that will enliven and build up community among us.

Join us as often as you wish. We welcome the conversation!
For more information, please contact Bob Kolatorowicz at: bobk@oldstpats.org

EVENINGS OF ADORATION AND CONTEMPLATIVE MUSIC

Old St. Patrick's Church, 700 W. Adams, Wednesdays

March 29th at 7:00 PM

Please join members of the Old St. Pat's Community throughout the season of Lent for 4 evenings of Adoration. This experience will be hosted by Encounter younger adults and OSP's music ministry and open to anyone and everyone. Prayer, reflection, and guidance materials will be available for those praying in this way for the first time. No registration is necessary.

ONLINE CHAPEL - Lent: Turning To Jesus As Our Companion

Jesus, whose yoke is easy and burden light, offers us a loving, empathic, and ever-present companionship. The grace of his presence is experienced through scripture, reflection, and community, wherever two or more are gathered in his name. So, please gather with us when you can. Our chapel prayer this Lent will use Sr. Joyce Rupp's brand new Lenten devotional, Jesus, Companion in My Suffering.

Please feel free to join us, occasionally or regularly, whenever you are available. There is no cost. Register to receive the Zoom link to participate. For further details about the experience go to www.contemplativecommunity.org

SHARE YOUR VOICE SUPPORT OUR PARISH

Would You Be Willing To Share Your Thoughts With Us?

The Archdiocese of Chicago, along with 16 other dioceses throughout the United States, is participating in an anonymous survey of parishioners called The Disciple Maker Index (DMI). This survey is designed to provide insights into the spiritual life of the parish and its members.

Cardinal Cupich is inviting all parishioners in the Archdiocese of Chicago to take part in the Disciple Maker Index survey. Your participation will help provide Fr. McGrath and our Old St. Patrick's ministerial leaders (staff and church leaders) with a better understanding of where to focus efforts and energies as we strive to grow in our faith and achieve our parish mission.

In the survey, you will find questions like: In what ways does our parish help you grow spiritually? How good are we at connecting you to others in the parish? In what ways do you feel invited to share your talents at our parish?

The survey takes about 10-15 minutes to complete, and it will be open for responses from February 22 - March 31.

To take the DMI survey, click on this link:
<https://portal.catholicleaders.org/d/gyp644>

All members of a household are encouraged to take this survey - using the above link or QR Code.

In the coming weeks, a paper version of the survey will also be available to be completed before or after Mass.

If you have any questions about the survey, please contact Bob Kolatorowicz at 312-831-9379 or bobk@oldstpats.org.

Almsgiving is central to how we practice Lent. Almsgiving flows from prayer and fasting. We reflect on the needs of the world and how God is calling us to meet those needs through prayer. We make room for the needs of others—and for the Holy Spirit to work within us—through fasting. Through a recognition of the world's needs and a personal commitment to act, we give alms.

As we come close to the end of the Lenten season, Old St. Pat's will be collecting the Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowls that have been shared at church on Sundays throughout the season. Whether you have been adding your pocket change to the bowl every day or you have committed to adding up the cost of those specialty coffees or restaurant meals you gave up for Lent - this is a chance to send those 'alms' to people around the world whose lives will be touched by your love. To make your contribution:

- Bring your Rice Bowl full of cash and change to Old St. Pat's on March 26, and hand it to any of our Hospitality Ministers at Masses.
- Write a check to CRS and drop it in our Catholic Relief Services basket at Masses on March 26 or mail it directly to them at

IMMIGRANT AND REFUGEE MINISTRY

A Lenten Faith Journey
March 26 - April 1, Week 5

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Station 1: Jesus is condemned.

Today's Gospel tells of Jesus raising Lazarus, a foreshadowing of God's power over death.

Such faith and hope carry Jesus through these next weeks. Reflect on the faith and hope that carry migrants on their journeys.

Monday.

Station 2: Jesus accepts his cross. Pray for immigrants who are denied a fair trial, and migrant children who sit in court alone.

Support those who defend them as Jesus defended the adulterous woman.

<https://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/immigration/catholic-teaching-on-immigration-and-the-movement-of-peoples>

Tuesday

Station 3: Jesus falls the first time. Pray for the families of migrants and refugees who suffer violence and instability in their countries of origin.

Read their stories and consider what you would do for your family. https://welcomewithdignity.org/asylum\_stories/

Wednesday

Station 4: Jesus meets his grieving mother. Imagine the pain in Mary's heart, yet her faith too. "You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." [See John 8:31] Act for pregnant migrant mothers whose faith in a better life leads them to detention and unsafe health care.

<https://action.aclu.org/send-message/uphold-reproductive-rights-and-health-migrants>

Thursday

Station 5: Simon helps Jesus carry the cross.

In Today's Gospel Jesus challenges those in power, just as DACA and Asylum seekers

Reflect on how you can be like Simon and take up their cross.

Friday

Station 6: Veronica wipes the face of Jesus.

The Gospel shows how Jesus is still threatened by unbelieving people.

Act as Veronica, believing in the dignity of immigrants by supporting the US Citizenship Act of 2021.

You are invited to view or download the entire Archdiocesan and Pastoral Migratoria Lenten Calendar here: bit.ly/PMLENT2023

Saturday

Station 7: Jesus falls the second time. Pray for the immigrants and asylum seekers who have arrived in this country, only to be confronted with discrimination, detention, and asylum denial.

THE IMMIGRANT & REFUGEE MINISTRY (IRM) IS SEEKING AN AFFORDABLE 2 BR APARTMENT FOR AN INCOMING FAMILY

Finding affordable housing is a real challenge for resettling immigrant families. If you—or someone you know—has a nice 2 BR apartment available for rent in the Chicago area in the next few months, IRM would like to connect with you. IRM will accompany this asylum seeking or refugee family and provide personal assistance and support to the family, i.e., finding a job, registering children for school, etc. The apartment will ideally be located near public transportation and be under $1,500 monthly. Renting to this family will be an important element in launching them successfully.

Please contact Kayla Jackson at kaylaj@oldstpats.org with any leads or questions.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES TO LAUNCH A NEW ARCHDIOCESAN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM FOR ASYLUM SEEKERS IN LATE MARCH

IRM has worked with Catholic Charities to develop a program to serve asylum seekers bussed into the Chicago area from Texas. A number of Archdiocesan parishes have shown an interest with 11 already signing on. The goal is to engage 21 in this Parish Sponsorship Model. Parishes have the option of covering the cost of financially supporting a family of asylum seekers ($10,000), accompanying them, or both. Catholic Charities will provide the case management support for the families and are still figuring out options for housing and legal support for this program.

The Immigration & Refugee Ministry (IRM) is so grateful to Old St. Pat's members for their generous, ongoing support of our efforts—a sincere thanks to all. The need is great. Please go to oldstpats.org. Click on GIVE TO OSP (upper right-hand corner). Click on GIVE ONLINE and select IMMIGRANT AND REFUGEE FUND from the drop-down menu. If you are interested in supporting our efforts as a volunteer or have any ideas or questions, please contact Kayla Jackson at kaylaj@oldstpats.org

Change, Hope and the Catholic Church

Pope Francis asked us to talk about our Church and the feedback was clear: enlarge the space of your tent! Catholics the world over shared that a greater role for women is critical to the future vitality of our Church. Join us for a "prayerful pep rally" welcoming Discerning Deacons back to Chicago and building excitement for Phoebe the Deacon's day. We'll hear women preach, and learn about ministry and empowering outreach happening around the globe. Come experience what a transformative, inclusive church feels like: one where women are able to unleash all their gifts. The future is bright!

FOR THOUGHT AND CULTURE

Tree of Life | Tree of Death: What Reiner's Trees Teach Us About the Passion of Jesus.
Monday, March 27th, 7pm, Athenaeum Center, 2936 N Southport Ave.

Fr Paul Anel, a Brooklyn based priest and artist, will invite us into deeper contemplation of Christ's Passion, sacrifice, and our own humanity as he delves into Reiner's use of nature in the Stations. Tickets are free, with a suggested donation. For more info, please visit: athenaeumcenter.org

Ballet 5:8 Mourning Ballet.
Tuesday, April 4th, 7pm, Athenaeum Center for Thought & Culture, 2936 N Southport Ave.

Dancers from Ballet 5:8 will present Mourning, an original work in conjunction with the Stations. Begin your Holy Week with this ballet reflection on grief and hope. Tickets are free, with a suggested donation. For more info, please visit: athenaeumcenter.org

Grief is inescapable. Every culture has different rituals to process grief, yet a strand of shared humanity exists in the ebb and flow of grief. We can turn away from the five stages of grief, shield ourselves from the pain of a lost future, but we find that when we face our suffering, the darkest of night can give way to the warmth of morning.

Mass Schedule

Saint Catherine of Genoa

Saint of the Day for March 26, 2023

Going to confession one day was the turning point of Catherine's life.

When Catherine was born, many Italian nobles were supporting Renaissance artists and writers. The needs of the poor and the sick were often overshadowed by a hunger for luxury and self-indulgence. Catherine's parents were members of the nobility in Genoa. At 13, she attempted to become a nun but failed because of her age. At 16, she married Julian, a nobleman who turned out to be selfish and unfaithful. For a while she tried to numb her disappointment by a life of selfish pleasure.

One day in confession she had a new sense of her own sins and how much God loved her. She reformed her life and gave good example to Julian, who soon turned from his self-centered life of distraction. Julian's spending, however, had ruined them financially. He and Catherine decided to live in the Pammatone, a large hospital in Genoa, and to dedicate themselves to works of charity there. After Julian's death in 1497, Catherine took over management of the hospital.

She wrote about purgatory which, she said, begins on earth for souls open to God. Life with God in heaven is a continuation and perfection of the life with God begun on earth.

Exhausted by her life of self-sacrifice, Catherine died September 15, 1510, and was canonized in 1737. The liturgical feast of Saint Catherine of Genoa is celebrated on September 15.

Regular confession and frequent Communion can help us see the direction—or drift—of our life with God. People who have a realistic sense of their own sinfulness and of the greatness of God are often the ones who are most ready to meet the needs of their neighbors. Saint Catherine began her hospital work with enthusiasm and was faithful to it through difficult times because she was inspired by the love of God, a love which was renewed in her by the Scriptures and the sacraments.
