Join members of our music ministry in an entertaining and informative evening led by Director of Music, Mark Scozzafave. If you are planning a wedding at Old St. Pat's in the coming months, this evening of music will be especially helpful. You'll hear cantors, a selection of our available repertoire, plus a variety of strings, brass, woodwinds, and Irish instruments. We invite all who celebrate love in its many forms to join us for this special Mass celebrating the commitment and call to love one another as God has loved you.

after | WORD

applying Gospel wisdom to daily life

February 4, 18, & 25 | 10:15 - 10:45 AM | Community Room - 625 W. Adams, 2nd floor

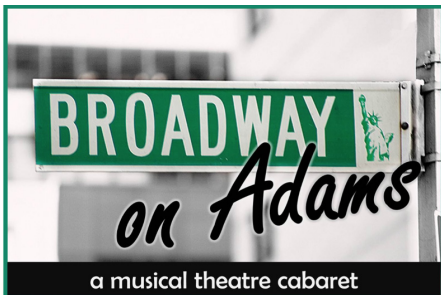

We hear the Gospel proclaimed every Sunday. Perhaps we even read the Gospel as a personal spiritual practice. But where can we go if we just want to talk with others about what we hear in the Sunday Gospels?

after | WORD is a thirty minute spiritual practice, offered on Sunday, that invites us to dialogue with the Sunday Gospel and one another. Grab a donut and a cup of coffee from our hospitality table and let's talk for a bit about what you're hearing in the Gospel and how it might make a difference in the coming week.

Following dates are March 3 & 10.

No registration is required. Participate as often as you wish. We welcome the conversation!

For more information, please contact Bob Kolatorowicz at: bobk@oldstpats.org

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

February 11 | 9:00 AM | OSP Church

Children's Liturgy of the Word for our Kindergarten through 2nd graders will take place at the 9 am Mass. Children should sit with their families until they are invited to the altar by the priest. They will then go into the rectory with adult leaders to learn about the readings of the day in a child-friendly manner. We engage in activities to support the children's understanding of the gospel message.

Our numbers for this group have grown -- which we love, however, our space is limited, so we ask that parents stay in the church during our sessions. Children's Liturgy of the Word is for children, 3 years old through 2nd grade.

If you're interested in being a volunteer, please let us know, and we will work you into the rotation. Note that in compliance with Archdiocese regulations, all volunteers need to be Virtus trained if accompanying Children's Liturgy of the Word. Also, if your child requires special consideration please contact us and we will be happy to discuss this with you.

So grateful for this vibrant community of young families!

SPECIAL FRIENDS MASS

February 18 | 12:00 PM | FXW Cafeteria

Special Friends Masses are intended for members of our faith community with diverse abilities who may struggle to attend a traditional Mass. It is a place of welcome, encouragement, and triumph where Christ's presence feels palpable among us and from where we help to bring Christ into the world.

Prior to mass we provide an activity for families to get to know each other and feel comfortable in the space. After mass, there is a reception for families to socialize. Children who may want a break during the liturgy are welcome to use the activity tables in the back or their parents may take them into an empty classroom.

We would like to make as many accommodations for families as possible. If there is something that would make your experience easier, please let us know. If you would like to attend or volunteer please contact Bea Cunningham via email at BeaC@oldstpats.org, or via phone at 312-831-9351.

If you, or someone you know, would benefit from joining our Special Friends Masses, we welcome you! Please help us spread the word.

GREEN NOTES FROM OSP GREEN TEAM: Try These Tips to Eat More Plant-Based Food

You know the importance of eating more plant-based food. You understand that eating plant-based is good for your health, and good for the planet. But you want food that is delicious as well as nutritious. And you can only eat so much salad every day. What to do? Our friends at Meatless Mondays recently offered some tips for incorporating more plant-based eating into everyday meals. Here are a few of their suggestions.

- Subscribe to Meatless Mondays for a weekly email with recipe suggestions, tips, articles, and equipment and industry updates.
- Always have avocados on hand; use to make avocado toast, in a sandwich instead of cheese, in a smoothie, or a creamy dessert like chocolate avocado pudding.
- Buy legumes in bulk, like red or green lentils, yellow or green split peas, black beans, kidney beans, garbanzo beans, cannellini beans or pigeon peas. Lentils, peas, and beans are all inexpensive protein sources that keep for months in your pantry, and can be used in soups, stews, salads, and even deserts. Black bean brownies anyone?
- Cook with whole grains like brown and wild rice, farro, bulgur, whole wheat, and quinoa. Whole grains contain all the parts of the grain kernel: the fiber dense bran, the nutrient rich germ, and the starchy endosperm. Because of this, whole grains pack a rich nutrient punch.
- Tofu is another excellent plant-based protein source that can take on many different flavors. Learn how to press tofu to reduce the water content; then cook with tangy marinades or sauces.
- Experiment with substituting plant-based ground beef and sausages in recipes that call for meat. Most people find it hard to tell the difference between these products and ones made from beef or pork.
- Explore the world's ethnic cooking styles, which typically emphasize plant rather than animal ingredients. Mediterranean, Middle Eastern, Chinese, Indian, Thai, or Japanese cookbooks all provide inspiration for new dishes that focus on vegetables and whole grains as the main ingredients.
- Use bean or vegetable pastas like chickpea rotini, lentil penne or spinach fettucine instead of wheat noodles.
- Swap out a plant-based milk for dairy milk. Nut milks, oat milks and soy milks all have similar nutritional value to dairy milk. Try in your coffee, tea, and cereal, and in baked goods. Coconut milk provides an elegant creamy finish to soups and stews, especially Thai and Indian dishes.
- Keep a well-stocked spice rack to pack extra flavor into dishes without adding calories or more dishes to wash.
- Invest in kitchen gadgets: a tofu press, an immersion blender, a juicer, a spiralizer, a mandolin can all make meal preparation simpler and faster, while adding texture and visual appeal to plant-based meals.
- Install an app like Happy Cow, Fork Over Knives, Vanilla Bean, or Food Monster for quick access to plant-based recipe inspiration.

FROM PRISON TO PRODUCTIVITY: Jacqui's Inspiring Journey

Jaqui Hunter's evolving success story is a testimony to the transformative power of partnerships between Old St. Pat's (OSP) and organizations in surrounding communities. Jaqui set out on a path from gun violence to prison, to reentry from prison, to becoming an entrepreneur and eventually establishing his own catering business. He is an inspiration.

Jaqui enrolled in workforce development programming with the North Lawndale Employment Network (NLEN) at 1111 S. Homan Avenue. Founded in 1999, NLEN provides cognitive behavioral therapy, job readiness training and one-on-one coaching for job seekers so they can find and maintain living wage jobs. NLEN set Jaqui up with a coach, helped him hone his culinary skills, positioned him to earn a food handler's permit, trained him to round up customers and prepared him to run a productive business.

The North Lawndale Works Campaign which launched at OSP in July of 2023 set a goal of raising $36,000 to assist North Lawndale area job seekers, like Jaqui. However the campaign not only reached, but it also exceeded the desired goal. In the end, OSP members contributed $50,000, all of which is earmarked for NLEN clients who face significant barriers to employment. Women and men who might otherwise be restricted from gainful employment because they lack: transportation, childcare, work attire, mobile phones, funds for training or licensing, one time utility bill, medical or emergency assistance, or other necessary costs now receive help paying expenses those who are more affluent could possibly take for granted. For Jaqui and others like him, these financial barriers are the difference between despair and hope at best, and sometimes even life and death.

Jaqui is making a mark in the U.S. economy, supporting himself and his family and living with dignity. It is through the missions of NLEN and OSP that Jaqui, other North Lawndale residents and people in other communities gain opportunities, access and hope they so richly deserve. Old St. Pat's, thank you for your care and the many forms of support you provide. Year in and year out, you make a positive difference.

KINSHIP MISSION: Through the Kinship Initiative, people of North Lawndale and Old St. Patrick's Church walk alongside one another in friendship sharing our talents, and resources to secure justice, opportunity and the transformation of our communities.

*Lord Jesus, we ask you to give us all around peace in our mind, body, soul and spirit.
We want you to heal and remove everything that is causing stress, grief, or sorrow in our lives.
Please guide our path through life and make our enemies be at peace with us. Amen.*

*"I know what it is to be in need,
and I know what it is to have plenty.
I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want,
I can do all this through Him who gives me strength."
- Philippians 4:12-13*

Saint Joseph of Leonissa

Saint of the Day for February 4, 2024

Joseph was born at Leonissa in the Kingdom of Naples. As a boy and as a student in early adulthood, Joseph drew attention for his energy and virtue. Offered a nobleman's daughter in marriage, Joseph refused and joined the Capuchins in his hometown in 1573 instead. Avoiding the safe compromises by which people sometimes undercut the gospel, Joseph denied himself hearty meals and comfortable quarters as he prepared for ordination and a life of preaching.

In 1587, he went to Constantinople to take care of the Christian galley slaves working under Turkish masters. Imprisoned for this work, he was warned not to resume it on his release. He did and was again imprisoned and then condemned to death. Miraculously freed, he returned to Italy where he preached to the poor and reconciled feuding families as well as warring cities which had been at odds for years. He was canonized in 1745.

Saints often jar us because they challenge our ideas about what we need for "the good life." "I'll be happy when..." we may say, wasting an incredible amount of time on the periphery of life. People like Joseph of Leonissa challenge us to face life courageously and get to the heart of it: life with God. Joseph was a compelling preacher because his life was as convincing as his words.
