The Honour of Your Presence is requested
At Old St Patrick’s This Holy Week, 2019.

I was with a group of our young adults during this past week, just sitting around and having some casual conversation one evening, when the subject of Holy Week came up. To both my delight and my surprise, I heard them collectively express their excitement for the upcoming celebrations of Holy Week, and particularly Holy Thursday. “It’s my favorite mass of the year,” one of them said.

I guess I’ve never been one to actually judge or rank my “favorite” liturgies (although if I had to vote, Thanksgiving Mass at OSP gets a pretty high mark from me), but I was thrilled to hear of the enthusiasm for Holy Thursday from these members of a younger generation. It’s awesome. And I too share their excitement for what we are about to celebrate during this holiest week of the church year. I was also told by Mark Scozzafave, our brilliant Music Director, that he expects about 50 (!) choir members to be with us this Thursday, April 18 for the Mass of the Lord’s Supper, which begins at 7:00 pm.

Because I have been around Old St. Pat’s long enough, I am also keenly aware of our shift from the past, which included Holy Thursday community masses and dinner together. A long tradition that lasted for over 30 years which, for many, was a hallmark moment of bringing together people around tables to share in this sacred feast of fellowship, community building, and the Paschal Mystery. We made the prayerful decision that perhaps this was the year to start something new. And I am really excited about this.

Old St. Pat’s is synonymous with generosity. And more than just being generous, the people who gather at the Lord’s Table every day know already that what we do at the Table, doesn’t just stay at the Table. It’s meant to be that which drives our Mission and our vocation to live God’s deepest truth of who we are in the world. To be Bread for the world! This Holy Thursday, instead of us gathering for a meal with each other, we want to be those who bring the bread (a meal) into the world for someone else. I look forward to unpacking this more when we come together on Thursday of this week.

And not to overshadow the significance of the other days, I hope you will also make time to celebrate the Lord’s Passion on Good Friday. Our “all star” line-up of presiders will lead us well as we walk the Way of The Cross with Jesus on Good Friday. Fr. Cusick will preside at our 12:00 service, Terry Nelson-Johnson will lead the Stations of the Cross at 3:00, and Fr. McGrath will preside at the 5:30 service.

On Saturday, I will have the privilege and honor, on behalf of all of us, to preside at the Easter Vigil, where we will welcome 40 adults into the Catholic community of Faith through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. There’s no greater sign of Easter Life than witnessing these incredible young adults choosing to be a part of this great journey of Faith with us.

I pray this Holy Week will be an enriching time of healing and renewal for the larger Church throughout the world and for all of us here at Old St. Patrick’s.

Father Tom Hurley
During Lent we have asked some of our church members, friends, and staff to respond to a one-word prompt. The word prompts reflect some of the themes we will be hearing in the Sunday Gospels.

_Temptation... Awe... Change... Forgiveness... Judgment... Passion_

Fifth Sunday of Lent | April 14, 2019 | "Passion"

The creative force behind all great art, all great drama, all great music, all great architecture, all great writing is passion. Passion is what energizes life. Passion makes the impossible possible. Passion gives us a reason to get up in the morning and go, "I'm going to do something with my life today."

Without passion life becomes monotonous. It becomes routine. In Greek, the word for passion is the word "heart." Passion has to do with our heart in God. The eternal fire that motivates and energizes us to fulfill our purposes.

Whenever I think of passionate people I think about my parents who have lovingly embodied the love of God for myself and my siblings entire life. And they would say that they passed on their passion from their parents. As with all stories from the past, they ultimately become a story embodied in our present. A story not just about us, but a story about God. A God who is determined to get what God wants – _a passionate relationship with us._

Passion is not something that is static or that stays the same, because a fire will either spread or burn out. The tendency of fire, it left by itself, is to go out. Passionate relationship works the same way. We need to work it, stoke it and build it.

_Bernadette Gibson is The Director of Pastoral Care at Old Saint Pat’s for the last 13 years. Bernadette advances the vision and values of our mission by offering a compassionate & devoted spiritual presence to our members in need._

In the jargon of those who study such things, "Nones" are those individuals who, when surveyed about religious affiliation, check the box next to "none."

Among church leadership types, there is a fair amount of hand-wringing and worry about the growing number of "Nones" within the younger demographic. It’s understandable. Are churches on the brink of losing a generation? Church-going parents and grandparents, too, wonder if their children and grandchildren will find meaning in a church experience. It’s a troubling question.

However, Krista Tippett, author and host of the On Being radio program, sees in the passion of the "Nones" a hope for religion. She writes:

_The Nones of this age are ecumenical, humanist, transreligious. In their midst are analogs to the original monastics: spiritual rebels and seekers on the margins of established religion, pointing tradition back to its own untamable, countercultural, service-oriented heart._

I think she’s on to something. Perhaps what we need now more than ever is the passionate leadership of a generation that yearns to point our tradition back “to its own untamable, countercultural, service-oriented heart.”

Salute to Service Speaker Series
Presentation and Book Signing
Randy Lewis, Author and Disability Employment Advocate
Wednesday, May 8 | 6 pm | 625 W. Adams

In a world where those with mental and physical disabilities are seen as “disabled,” what would it take to not only have those individuals contribute, but to also give them the same expectations, goals, and work at the same wage as those without disabilities?

A disability employment advocate, Randy Lewis joined Walgreens in 1992 as a divisional vice president in logistics and planning. Living within the world where technology and creativity combine, Randy designed and opened the first distribution facility of its kind to employ a significant number of people with disabilities (more than 40% of the workforce has a cognitive or physical disability.) Drawing inspiration from his autistic son, Randy has become a speaker and author on the topics of incorporating those with disabilities into the workforce, receiving numerous awards for his volunteer work and advocacy.

Special pre-order book pricing of $12 ($19.65 retail), includes book signing.

WEDDING VOLUNTEERS

Old St. Patrick's wedding volunteers participate in the hospitality mission by assisting brides, grooms, and their families with the arrangements at Old St. Patrick's on one of the most special and important days in their lives.

Wedding volunteers ensure that the day-of-the-wedding arrangements and logistics at the church are fulfilled according to the plans they have made with their Priest and with the Old St. Pat's staff.

The time commitment is approximately 3-4 hours on Saturdays once every 6-8 weeks. Instructions, training with experienced volunteers, and a day-of-wedding worksheet are provided.

If you are interested in becoming a Wedding Volunteer, please join us on Saturday, May 18 at 9:30 am. We will meet in OSP’s Hughes Hall with a continental breakfast, meet with current volunteers, and discuss the Wedding Volunteer Ministry activities. The meeting will conclude by 11:30 am; for new volunteers, we will tour the church to highlight areas specifically relevant to wedding volunteer activities.

To RSVP or for more information, please contact Donna Kamuda (dgkamuda@gmail.com).
The measure of a coach’s success is often seen by the number of wins and losses, conference titles and championships. Outside of family, an athletic coach has been described as the most significant presence in the lives of student athletes. The coach can hone the skills of very talented athletes. But maybe even more important, the coach shapes character and models the transition from adolescence to emerging adults. A successful coach is responsible not only for developing a successful team but also for developing mature, talented and successful human beings.

Porter Moser has done both. His success as Loyola’s Head Basketball Coach has brought his team and the University back into the National spotlight. With greater impact however has been Moser’s critical role as a former of Men.

The mission of the First Friday Club of Chicago is to provide a forum for men and women to make connections between work, faith, values and issues that affect their daily lives.

The session will be facilitated by Lisa Jurski, a member of Old St. Pat’s. Lisa has been a Creighton practitioner for several years and has taught hundreds of couples in Chicago about Creighton and the life-giving gift it can be for relationships and women’s health.

Women and Men of Faith

Blessed Peter Gonzalez
(d. April 15, 1246)

Saint of the Day for April 14

Saint Paul had a conversion experience on the road to Damascus. Many years later, the same proved true for Peter Gonzalez, who triumphantly rode his horse into the Spanish city of Astorga in the 13th century to take up an important post at the cathedral. The animal stumbled and fell, leaving Peter in the mud and onlookers amused.

Humbled, Peter reevaluated his motivations—his bishop-uncle had secured the cathedral post for him—and started down a new path. He became a Dominican priest and proved to be a most effective preacher. He spent much of his time as court chaplain, and attempted to exert positive influence on the behavior of members of the court. After King Ferdinand III and his troops defeated the Moors at Cordoba, Peter was successful in restraining the soldiers from pillaging, and persuaded the king to treat the defeated Moors with compassion.

After retiring from the court, Peter devoted the remainder of his life to preaching in northwest Spain. Having developed a special mission to Spanish and Portuguese seamen, he is considered their patron.

Peter Gonzalez died in 1246 and was beatified in 1741.

Low-gluten Host

Old St. Pat’s has low-gluten hosts available for those members who, for health reasons, could not receive regular Communion hosts. If you would like to receive a low-gluten host, please contact Tom Micinski at tmicinski@oldstpats.org.

Sign-Language Interpreter

Upon request, a sign language interpreter can be available at the 11:15 am or 5 pm Mass on Sundays, as well as for holidays and holy days of obligation. It would be most appreciative if you would give us 5 days of advance notice. To request access to a sign language interpreter at Mass, please contact liturgy@oldstpats.org.
