“Like a Bridge Over Troubled Waters…”
Keeping Our Refugee Families in Our Hearts
By Maureen Hellwig
Sunday, May 10, 2020

In the context of this current pandemic and our stay-at-home rules, our Immigrant and Refugee Rights Committee wants to assure our parish community that we are in communication with our refugee families. We are providing food, as needed—and it is. This has been made possible through the OSP Covid-19 Relief Fund and the generosity of our committee members... (To make a gift to support this fund, please use the OSP giving link, bit.ly/givetoosp, and select COVID-19 Relief from the drop-down menu.)

We are working to make sure our families have the devices they need to facilitate continuation of their efforts to learn English, and so the children don’t miss their online school lessons. A BIG THANKS to our David Ryan and Kevin Kelly of the OSP Men’s Group for assisting with a Chromebook donation. Our newest committee member, Penny Davoren, also donated an ipad. Their donations have been much appreciated.

Some of us will be helping with reading over the summer. Tarek, one of the teens in the Alrefaai family, is working hard on his English with the help of tutors from Loyola Academy including Loyola teacher, Margo Stack. His younger brother has been accepted and will begin his freshman year there in September. Committee member, Kate Bergin, has shared how helpful Fr. McGrath has been in giving these young men an opportunity for a great high school education.

On the joyful news side, Maria Ramos is expecting a baby in June. We had been planning a baby shower earlier in April, another event cancelled by the pandemic. However, committee member, Giovana Quigley, worked with Maria, through multiple emails and photo exchanges, to set up a gift registry at Target. Maria says she has been delighted with the array of gifts she has received, and all is ready for Baby Ramos’ arrival.

And believe it or not, Pat Hamill has continued piano lessons with Luis Ramos over the phone!

Mike Schubert, Committee Co-Chair, has been working on a proposal for the purpose of presenting our mission to potential donors, to ensure that we will continue to have the resources we need to support our current families, and perhaps, take on one more.

Committee member, Sharon O’Brien, has been in touch with Azimah and Norham of our Rohingya family as they begin the holy season of Ramadan. Fortunately, Norham’s job is still secure, so they are doing OK.

Our Congolese brother, Gapira, has not been so fortunate. So, committee member, David Gross, has been helping him fill out his unemployment benefit application. Gapira’s older brother, Emile, has moved to Kentucky.

Last, but not least, at our last meeting via Zoom, the committee agreed on an advocacy strategy on behalf of immigrants and refugees in the US, using some tools sent to us by Catholic Charities. To put this in context, federal policies and legislation, like the CARES Act and other measures to support those in need during the pandemic, have excluded most immigrants and refugees. While the Gospel would not support such exclusion, it has also struck me that so many of the faces of health care workers and academics helping the governor use data to best calculate what lies ahead, have the faces and voices of Indians, Asians, Middle Easterners, Latinos, and Europeans. These current or former immigrants and refugees are keeping us alive. Then add to that the many other essential, low-wage workers, very often people of color, who are helping us get by.

Please join us by participating with the information that follows. You can help by sending a message to our Congressional Representatives that we #StandWithRefugees. Then, take a moment to email your Representatives by visiting, https://democracy.io/#!/. This link makes it easy to send your message efficiently, without having to look up any contact information. I think it took me all of three minutes.

Let them know you are a member of a faith community who stands with refugees and wants to make sure that COVID-19 relief:

• Provides funding to strengthen the resettlement infrastructure
• Provides no-cost testing and treatment for all
• Ensures cash payments to ALL refugees

Thanks for making advocacy part of your work to support those we serve and in praying with words from Fr. Richard Rohr:

O Great Love, thank you for living and loving in us and through us... Knowing you are hearing us better than we are speaking, we offer these prayers in all the holy names of God. Amen.

To contribute to Old St. Pat’s Immigrant and Refugee Fund, please use the OSP giving link, bit.ly/givetoosp, and select Immigrant & Refugee Fund from the drop-down menu. We thank you in advance for your generosity.
Jesus says in today’s Gospel from John, “Let not your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me.” Few words in the Bible are better known or more often quoted than these, but for all their timelessness, they were addressed to a very specific situation. The coronavirus pandemic has brought many unsettling changes to our nation and the world. This has caused many to fall into fear, worry, stress and depression. Many are unable to find any peace. A month ago, we celebrated the Resurrection together. There comes a time; however, when we must seek to live the Resurrection.

Many of us are stunned, trying to keep up with daily news about the coronavirus and the necessary changes to our lives. We might be terribly afraid, both for our own well-being and the health of those we love. And here we get the reminder we need. “Let not your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me.” In our fear and in our confusion, God is with us. We are never alone. Most of us are spending most of our time on Zoom gatherings lately. In a recent online gathering the community asked: “What is your biggest fear in these times?” I did not expect the abundance of responses received. But I left the meeting recognizing that Fear is universal. You may be worrying about your children (young or grown), or worrying about a loved one who is sick. Maybe you’re wondering how you’re going to live when a family member has died. All of us can be fearful about our health, or our finances. We can worry about all sorts of things, big and small. And yet, our God knew we would struggle with fear. So he made sure he wrote about it in today’s Gospel message. It today’s Gospel he sent a love letter to us.

When Jesus makes his farewell speech to His disciples, He tells them He is going to prepare a place for them. He will come for them, He says, “so that where He is, they also may be.” And then Jesus says to them, “and you know the place where I am going.” To which Thomas pipes up, “Lord we do not know where you are going.

How can we know the way?” I do not think Thomas was the only one among the disciples who wondered where Jesus was going and how they would find him - but Thomas was the one who spoke up! Perhaps every time we are not honest about our fears of abandonment, we shut the doors of our lives and we imprison ourselves. Perhaps that is what has happened to the disciples in today’s gospel. Jesus’ tomb is open and empty, but the disciples’ house is closed and the doors locked tight. The disciples have separated themselves and their lives from the reality of Jesus’ Resurrection. They have shut their eyes to the reality that life is now different. They have locked out Mary Magdalene’s words of faith, hope, and love. The doors of our tombs are always locked from the inside. Jesus is always entering the locked places of our lives. He comes to us in the uninvited and sometimes even unwanted places of our lives and He steps into our closed hearts and closed minds. Standing among us, He offers peace and breathes new life into us. He does not open the door for us, but He gives us all we need so that we might open our doors to a new life, a new creation, a new way of being.

Perhaps this strange time in our world is an invitation to a new way of living. A new way to embrace extra time and to encounter prayer with Jesus. Let us take peace in a God who calmed the storms. Help us to recognize that we have the power to pray together in many dwelling places. Help us to utilize this opportunity to share with others the hope that lies within us. It’s not wrong to experience fear. That’s a healthy response to the threats we face. But we can, by God’s grace, face our fears so that our hearts and our lives are ruled by hope and love, and not by fear alone. God’s love, in the end, is stronger than whatever we face. We are never alone.

OSP 18TH ANNUAL SPRING FOOD DRIVE FOR LITTLE BROTHERS - FRIENDS OF THE ELDERLY
First Ever Virtual Food Drive in 2020 for Low Income Seniors

Old St. Pat’s has a long, rich, and rewarding history with Little Brothers - Friends of the Elderly. Every year in the Spring and again in the Fall we replenish their food pantry with suitable items for seniors who just don’t have enough food to make it through until the end of each month. With these unprecedented times in history, Little Brothers is now sending food twice a month as the need has expanded for these vulnerable folks.

So since we can’t gather together in person as a community to continue our support, Old St. Pat’s will be hosting an electronic food drive for the seniors on Sunday, May 17. Our outcome will be the same - stock the pantry at Little Brothers so that we can ensure seniors have enough food.

Highlights:
• With this new process, we will provide a list of items available on Amazon.com for purchase.
• Amazon will group the Old St. Patrick’s orders for a coordinated delivery to Little Brothers.
• Volunteers will then deliver the food safely following established social distance guidelines.

Alas, we will miss seeing you in front of church by the truck this Spring… but we pray that in the fall we will be back together again collecting food items in front of the church building the kingdom of God.

In the meantime, we offer a warm smile and thank you in advance for your consideration and participation in this virtual food drive!

Participate on Amazon by visiting the following link:

Moms with babies in the UI Health Neonatal ICU received a book, cards, and prayers for them this Mother’s Day due to the generosity of Outreach at Old St. Pat’s.

The Pediatric Unit children have all been safely removed to another hospital location during this pandemic. Please keep them in your prayers.

A CHANGE OF PLANS

On Sunday, May 17, I was looking forward to presiding at a very special Mass at 1 pm at Old St. Patrick’s, and joining many of you at a short reception immediately following Mass.

The celebratory event would have been my 50th Anniversary as a Catholic Priest.

The anniversary will occur on May 13 (even Covid-19 cannot prevent that). However, a celebration of that event has been postponed until October 25. And since there are no guarantees about what life will look like even then, that date, too, might be iffy.

Please keep me in your prayers.

- Fr. John Cusick
CONTEMPLATIVE COMMUNITY

During this time of social distancing, participating in a small faith community online is a helpful resource to stay connected and enhance your prayer life. You can learn all about it at www.contemplativecommunity.org.

Chapels are hosted by trained leaders Monday – Saturday of each week. There is no fee and you can participate when you are able. We connect together in our online chapel through the video conferencing platform, Zoom. In order to participate in any of the online chapels, you will need to register by going to contemplativecommunity.org and completing a simple registration form. Once you have registered, an email will be sent to you with the URL and all the info you will need for participating in any of the chapels throughout the week.

The chapel experience is less than one hour long and takes place in two parts. The first half of our time is spent together in silent prayer/meditation. To see, hear and join with others throughout our community can be a profoundly connecting, expansive and intimate experience. The second half of the chapel time is reserved for reflecting on a short reading and then some simple faith sharing. If you have questions, please contact Al Gustafson at alg@oldstpats.org

Loving Kindness Meditation
Mondays at 7:30 pm

Join us in the OSP online chapel on Monday evenings for a guided Loving Kindness meditation practice beginning every Monday at 7:30 pm. This meditation has its roots in the Buddhist tradition and is a practice for cultivating Christ like compassion for ourselves, those in our life and our sisters and brothers throughout the world. It can serve very practically as a necessary and skillful antidote to the negative states of mind that are nearly impossible to guard against during these days of the pandemic.

This will also be an opportunity to join our hearts as one, sharing our prayer of care and becoming a collective channel of Light to a world that can use a little more love.

To sign up and receive a Zoom link to access the chapel, visit bit.ly/contemplativecommunity

Contemplative Community YouTube Channel

Visit bit.ly/contemplativecommunityyoutube to subscribe to a new YouTube channel where all the past and future enrichment, as well as special prayer experiences hosted through the Contemplative Community online chapel, can be accessed. Subscribing to the channel will offer easy access to past recordings and will alert you when future recordings have been added.

The following past experiences can now be revisited through the Contemplative Community channel:
* The Paschal Mystery in the Time of COVID-19
* Transition and Grief in the Time Of COVID-19
* The Stations of the Cross According to Mary
* Enriching Our Centering Prayer Practice
* Loving Kindness Meditation: A Guided Experience
In the face of this unprecedented crisis, your kindness and generosity sustain us!

With your help, we will continue to come together to support each other and our sisters and brothers in need. Thousands of us worship together on Sunday mornings via the gift of livestream. We are nourished by the Word of God and enhanced by the beautiful gifts of our Music Ministry. Throughout the week, the Old St. Pat’s staff offer prayerful podcasts, spiritual direction, Beloved circles, rosary groups, musical vespers, young adult gatherings, family liturgies, online education, and more – all virtually, of course.

Our pastoral care staff and ministry of care team have come together to develop volunteer networks for helping families encounter their grief after the death of a loved one, open themselves up to questions about isolation, face the illness of a family member, continue prayer chain calls and mail handwritten messages and care packages to the most vulnerable among us. The Pastoral team has accompanied families grieving the death of a loved one with virtual prayer services. Ministry staff are compiling a list of resources for our members seeking debt relief. Our Weddings and Baptisms team members continue to accompany the numerous couples as they postpone these significant events.

None of this would be possible without the support of Sunday Giving. On average, 20% of our Sunday collection is contributed through the Sunday basket. While we can’t pass the Sunday basket right now, we hope you will support our Sunday collection by making an online gift via the Livestream donate button, by texting GIVE to 312/535-0118, or by mailing a check to Old St. Pats’, 711 W. Monroe St., Chicago, IL 60661. Thank you!

CURRENTS | Awakening to the Flow of Spirit in Our Lives

Join us for Currents, our weekly Old St. Pat’s podcast series, as we explore the deeper movements of Spirit in our lives.

Each episode features members and friends of the Old St. Pat’s community giving voice to their lived experience of faith and spirituality. Whether sharing an insight, pondering a question, or offering a prayerful reflection, Currents speaks to our Spirit-led search for meaning and purpose.

Episode Five, Mindful Music, is now streaming. In this episode, we welcome Mark Scozzafave. Mark is the Director of Music Ministries at Old St. Pat’s and talks to us about the importance and power of music within the church. This episode also features beautiful music performed by Mark and Aimee Scozzafave.

The OSP Podcast is hosted by Kate Anderson with music by Mark Scozzafave.
CROSSROADS RUNNERS
We Invite You to Join Us In Staying Active During the Quarantine!

WORK-OUT FROM HOME CHALLENGE (WOFH)

We have started a Work-Out From Home Challenge (WOFH) and thought a little incentive would help. This is for everyone whether you plan to run the marathon or would just like some motivation to stay active.

Help fill our social media feeds with positivity. If you don’t already follow Crossroads Runners on Social Media, please do so on our new accounts below.

Post a photo of staying active (running, walking, biking, etc) while social distancing. Please include an inspirational message with your post, tag us and include #ospworkoutfromhomechallenge.

WE STILL HAVE A SPOT FOR YOU TO JOIN OUR MARATHON TEAM!

Did you have plans to run another marathon this spring that has been postponed? Have you been putting off running a marathon until ‘next year’? With social distancing, why not use the time to start training and check off that “I always wanted to run a marathon” bucket list item. This is your year to run the Chicago Marathon and help the OSP North Lawndale Initiative and other social outreach programs that the Crossroads Team supports.

WIN AN APPLE WATCH!

All runners who register to run the 2020 marathon with Crossroads runners before Friday, May 15 will be entered to win an Apple Watch! Participants who have already registered will be automatically entered.

The benefits of being part of our team include a professional training coach, team camaraderie, pre-marathon gathering with gear check and post party near the start/finish line and much more!

In the fall runners will flock to the streets of Chicago to take part in a journey of endurance, dedication and heart. We’d love to have you join our team and we will be there to help cheer you every step of the way.

Saint of the Day for May 13

Between May 13 and October 13, 1917, three Portuguese children—Francisco and Jacinta Marto and cousin Lucia dos Santos—received apparitions of Our Lady at Cova da Iria near Fatima, a city 110 miles north of Lisbon. Mary asked the children to pray the rosary for world peace, for the end of World War I, for sinners, and for the conversion of Russia.

Mary gave the children three secrets. Following the deaths of Francisco and Jacinta in 1919 and 1920 respectively, Lucia revealed the first secret in 1927. It concerned devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.
The second secret was a vision of hell. When Lucia grew up she became a Carmelite nun and died in 2003 at the age of 97.

Pope John Paul II directed the Holy See’s Secretary of State to reveal the third secret in 2000; it spoke of a “bishops in white” who was shot by a group of soldiers who fired bullets and arrows into him. Many people linked this vision to the assassination attempt against Pope John Paul II at St. Peter’s Square on May 13, 1981.

The feast of Our Lady of Fatima was approved by the local bishop in 1930; it was added to the Church’s worldwide calendar in 2002.

Reflection

The message of Fatima is simple: Pray. Unfortunately, some people—not Sister Lucia—have distorted these revelations, making them into an apocalyptic event for which they are now the only reliable interpreters.
They have, for example, claimed that Mary’s request that the world be consecrated to her has been ignored. Sister Lucia agreed that Pope John Paul II’s public consecration in St. Peter’s Square on March 25, 1984, fulfilled Mary’s request. The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith prepared a June 26, 2000, document explaining the “third secret.”

Mary is perfectly honored when people generously imitate her response “Let it be done to me as you say” (Luke 1:38). Mary can never be seen as a rival to Jesus or to the Church’s teaching authority, as exercised by the college of bishops united with the bishop of Rome.
