When the time of Pentecost was fulfilled, They gathered in one place together. - Acts 2:1
I am sometimes amazed at how many of you keep track of my whereabouts! And quite frankly I’m actually flattered that you care enough about me to inquire why you didn’t see my name on the Mass schedule for this Sunday, Pentecost of all days!!! It’s true…..I’m not here at Old St. Pat’s this weekend because I am traveling up to DePere, Wisconsin to attend the First Mass of our young brother, Jordan Neeck OPraem who is being ordained to the priesthood on Saturday June 8th. I can’t attend the ordination because I’m honored to be presiding at the wedding of Buddy Dudczak and Megan Simon here at OSP (the other sacrament of vocation), so I decided to go up for Jordan’s First Mass instead. As much as I love being with you, the people of Old St. Pat’s, every Sunday I am really looking forward to this moment for Jordan and for the Church.

For those who didn’t get a chance to meet him, Jordan was a student at the great Catholic Theological Union in Hyde Park and besides ministering with Courtney Malaway in our Foundations Youth Ministry here at OSP, Jordan also served his Deacon year with us. He’s a graduate of St. Norbert College, a native Wisconsinite, unfortunately a big Packer’s Fan, and a member of the Norbertine Order. And today, he will be a newly ordained priest for the Catholic Church….and I couldn’t be happier. Jordan is an absolutely delightful young man and he “gets it” when it comes to what priestly ministry is all about. He’s a people-person, he’s caring, he’s bright, he’s open to learning, he’s not clerical, he knows how to be present, and he likes to have fun and knows how to laugh. The Norbertine’s hit the jack pot when Jordan discerned his way into their religious community.

For the first time in a long time I am feeling particularly moved by Jordan’s ordination. Even though I see my “aging self” in the mirror every day and the calendar indicates I hit 26 years since my own ordination back in 1993, I have to admit I have always felt like a “young priest”….until now. Oh, don’t get me wrong, I’m not bemoaning my age. I still feel young and I’m grateful for the energy God still gives to me to be your priest, but I feel like I’m hitting a significant moment with Jordan’s ordination. It’s more than just being ‘happy’ for him. I feel a deep sense of responsibility to be encouraging him and offering him whatever bit of wisdom or guidance I might possibly have.

I want to hand on to Jordan some of the wisdom that was handed on to me (which I’ve quoted and shared many times in homilies throughout the years). I need to say to Jordan Neeck what Fr. John Canary said to me when he saw my troubled, confused, and terrified face the day after I was ordained: “you’re okay; you’re alright; the problem is you just don’t know yet!” I want him to hear what a wise priest said to me in such simple terms, it was his motto for ministry: “Just be Present to them!” I wish Jordan could have benefitted from the guidance and passion of the late Roger Hughes who was our volunteer executive director for 24 years: “Remember, it’s all about The Love Story of Jesus” and “Don’t think you’re the smartest guy in the room, because you’re not!”

I am feeling an abundant amount of responsibility today: to hand on and to share the gifts and wisdom that some of my mentors joyfully handed on to me. In case you’re interested, these are the gifts I am giving to the new Father Jordan today at St. Norbert’s Abbey: first, a ceramic plate and chalice that was lovingly created by our own talented Bea Cunningham with the Old St. Pat’s Crossroads Cross painted onto it, along with a quote from Pope Francis that he told newly ordained priests back on May 12 in Rome: “Let what you teach be nourishment for the People of God. You will be a man of prayer, a man of sacrifice so that by word and example you may build the House of God.”

The second gift is a four volume series by our friend and author Jack Shea, “The Spiritual Wisdom of the Gospel for Teachers and Preachers.” I think Jack is one of the best scholars and spiritual writers of our time. I want Jordan to be a great homilist. The last gift is an oil stock. I think the most important thing we do in parish ministry is bring the anointing and comfort to the sick.

It’s Pentecost and despite all the red colors and cosmic imagery of Winds and Flames of the Spirit, that early Church was terrified and questioning: what did we get ourselves into? The Risen Christ promised to be with them and gave them the gift of the Spirit to guide them and be their strength. We live in troubling times right now. The Church is damaged and in dire need of renewal and healing. Let’s pray together today, from DePere to Chicago, that this Holy and Energetic Spirit will guide not only Jordan, but all of us into a Holier, Healthier and Happier time.

Happy Pentecost!

Fr. Tom Hurley

Father Thomas J. Hurley
Birth is miraculous and incredibly messy. I think that anyone present at the birth of another human being can probably attest to this. Fear, elation, pain, and perhaps even frustration accompany the mystery of birth, the mystery of new life. At the birth of each of my sons, I was anxious with excitement. Because even as I had come to expect certain things (each time, I was lucky to have my husband as well as compassionate and competent health care workers there to monitor the health of the baby and me), it was viscerally clear that we were heading into the unknown. Labor had never been exactly like this and most of all - we had never met this human being before.

The first Pentecost - with the tongues of flame revealing the Spirit’s presence hovering over the heads of the disciples - is often considered to be the Birth of the Church. Notably, no documents were signed and no leaders were named and sworn in that day. But with no institution yet developed, the Church was born out of a mission: the Holy Spirit’s entering into the followers of Christ and sending them out to bring the message of Jesus to people of all nations and welcome them into communion with God through Christ. The scene described in the scriptures is one of energy, of movement, of passion, and even of hope.

But with all of this, what we often fail to recognize or imagine is that it must also have been an incredibly messy and even chaotic scene. Filled with the Spirit, these far-from-perfect human beings head into the street to preach the Good News. And yes, they have been given the ability to speak in different languages so they can be understood by the variety of people present there. But nowhere does it say that the hundreds (or thousands) present actually agreed with what they were saying! If we want to treat that first Pentecost as an actual human event in history, we should probably consider that there were likely a few arguments that ensued that day. At least some of the audience must have been shocked or even scandalized by the crazy message of a “Son of God” who died in the most humiliating and degrading way coming back to life to reconcile humanity to the Almighty one.

Imagining the first Pentecost as messy as well as inspiring might help us build the capacity to live in hope: Hope that our current reality might birth justice and mercy. Hope that conservatives and the liberals, the traditionalists and the progressives, the pious believers and the apathetic - we are all passionately and absurdly loved by God. Hope that we might still be the community (fractured and sinful as we are) through whom the redemption of the whole human family might unfold. Because that mission of the church, born at that first Pentecost, is one that calls the believers of Christ to be led by divine grace to transform the world.

Pentecost 2019 must not be a nod to a historical and finite moment from millennia ago. Pentecost today must be a recognition that the messiness of birth goes hand in hand with its mysterious goodness and fruitfulness. Pentecost today must recognize that the Spirit refuses to stop moving, and perhaps she even moves with more force and energy when the earth and all its residents ache and cry out for a new reality to be born.

NEVER BE ORDINARY - WISDOM FROM MY FATHER
By Fr. John Cusick

This might be a good gift for Fathers’ Day or a belated graduation gift. Someone told me that it was given to an “expectant father” at a Baby Shower. I believe you will enjoy it, too.

First published in December 2018, it sold out quickly. It is available again from the publisher (corbybooks.com) and Amazon.com.

I must admit that I am excited about it. For years I had “writers’ block.” I never believed that I would or could write a book. I talk for a living. Writing is a very different form of the English language.

It is a short little book made up of seven pieces of wisdom I remember my dad telling me during the 25 years he was a part of my life. It is not a book of brilliant insights. It is a book of common-sense wisdom you have probably heard or said to others during your life. If you have heard me speak, teach, or preach during the past 48 years, then you have heard the contents of “Never Be Ordinary.” I have appropriated the street-smart wisdom of George Cusick into my own life, and passed it on to anyone willing to listen.

From the Publisher:

“This is a warm and wonderful tribute from a son to his father. But it is more than that. When the author was growing up, he did not pay close attention to things his father, an ordinary man, said to him. Yet years later, as he looked back on his life, he realized how much his father’s words really did influence his life. Here Father Cusick presents 7 key things his father taught him.”

“Never Be Ordinary” is available on Amazon and directly from the publisher, Corby Books. I hope you enjoy this little book half as much as I did writing it, and remembering all the experiences wrapped around what I recall my dad telling me.

Available at: corbybooks.com and Amazon.com

The Archdiocese has changed the requirements for Confirmation which is now a TWO YEAR process. The preparation begins in Fall of 7th grade and Confirmation will take place in the Spring of their 8th-grade year.

It’s more important than ever to review the Partners calendar (see dates below) to see if the schedule works for your family (due to holidays and Chicago Marathon, the dates are atypical.) We know that Sunday obligations are demanding and perhaps our program and attendance policy might not work for your family. Knowing that attendance will be closely monitored and that each space is at a premium, take an honest look at this calendar.

Because of our large waiting list and limited class sizes, at the end of the 2020 school year, those with more than the allowed three absences, will not be able to register for the following year.

Families attend the 9:30 mass and classes are held from 10:45 to Noon in the Frances Xavier Warde School on the first and third Sundays (with some exceptions) of the month from September through April.

• Reconciliation fee, per child: $ 85
• Confirmation One 2021 fee, per child $85 (paid in Year One only)

Recently Pope Francis said, “Today’s world seems to be increasingly filled with indifference and cynicism. At the root of these attitudes is a lack of Hope which harms our relationships with each other and with God.” The most apparent solution is an infusion of Faith, Hope and Love. That has been and continues to be the primary goal of the Faith Foundation.

Over the past fourteen years the Faith Foundation has given out 233 grants totaling over $950,000. We, on the committee, realize that without your thoughtfulness and generosity none of this great work and blessings would have been possible. Be assured that every dollar that you contribute goes directly to inspire our young people.

Please join us on Monday, June 17th as we honor two selfless servants who bring hope and love to the many hearts they touch each day. This year’s recipients are Monsignor Ken Velo and Tim Bopp. These selfless servants are constant examples of how each of us can make a difference in our own fast paced world one person at a time. Remember no one can do everything - but everyone can do something.

SPIRITUAL MAKEOVER: BECOMING A NEW CREATION
Friday, July 19

What is it about the quiet that invites us deeper – the darkness that wraps herself around us or the stillness that urges us to ponder? No doubt about it, something about the quiet calls us home.

“Come inside,” she whispers. “Come rekindle the fire.”

Join us for a women’s weekend of renewal in the midst of the city. We will pause together at the Cenacle Retreat House just minutes from Lake Michigan to assess our spiritual homes, consider opportunities for our own spiritual makeovers and strengthen our foundations. Together, we’ll pray ourselves into a new creation in anticipation of the coming Easter season.

We’re North Lawndale College Prep.

This year has brought a lot of change to Chicago. We have a new mayor in City Hall, just days into her administration, and a new governor in Springfield who promises to shake up education in the state.

One thing that has been constant is the impact that North Lawndale College Prep (NLCP) is having on our city. For 21 years, NLCP has been a beacon of light on Chicago’s west side. In 2018-2019, NLCP’s Peace Warriors have trained more than 120 students and teachers on how to interrupt violence in their schools and communities. NLCP’s Phoenix Hall has supported five students experiencing housing insecurity, providing them with residential services, food and counseling. And, at our two campuses, more than 150 scholars have completed their Senior Project, exploring issues that affect their community from the impact of sugary drinks on health outcomes to how male-dominated culture affects rates of sexual violence.

We need grillers, cashiers, and people to help prep food. You’ll meet new people while supporting a good cause, and you’ll have the rest of the evening to hang out at the block party and enjoy the music, food, and good times. In order to have t-shirts ordered in time, the deadline to volunteer is June 2!

Please note that if we have a large number of volunteers, we may ask some people if they are willing to be reassigned to another area that is in need of help. We will make sure that if you are reassigned, you are still volunteering with other people from OSP Next. If you have any questions about the grill, please contact Heather at heatherpaxtonremack@yahoo.com. Our June book is I’ll Be Gone in the Dark: One Woman’s Obsessive Search for the Golden State Killer by Michelle McNamara, a true crime account about a murdered who terrorized California for over a decade and the gifted journalist who died tragically while investigating the case.

Newcomers are always welcome! Just read the book and show up.
The next chapter will meet on June 23, 2019 following 9:30 mass on the OSP front steps. We will take the water taxi to Chinatown’s Ming Hin Restaurant and enjoy dim sum and friendly conversation. We are allowed to leave our cars parked in the parking lot.

We are a group of Widows and Widowers creating new friendships to live, laugh and experience life through social interaction with friends from OSP living in and around the city and suburbs.

Come join us as we gather to share our new beginnings together planning fun filled activities such as movies, boat tours, art exhibits, wine tastings, group meetings and much more.

Please contact Linda Eng at 847-846-8701 or Lbeng49@gmail.com

Let us know one way or the other if you will be joining us so we can make a reservation. Please come and join us!

Saint Ephrem

(d. June 9, 373)

Saint of the Day for June 9

Poet, teacher, orator, and defender of the faith, Ephrem is the only Syrian recognized as a doctor of the Church. He took upon himself the special task of opposing the many false doctrines rampant at his time, always remaining a true and forceful defender of the Catholic Church.

Born in Nisibis, Mesopotamia, he was baptized as a young man and became famous as a teacher in his native city. When the Christian emperor had to cede Nisibis to the Persians, Ephrem fled as a refugee to Edessa, along with many other Christians. He is credited with attracting great glory to the biblical school there. He was ordained a deacon but declined becoming a priest. Ephrem was said to have avoided presbyteral consecration by feigning madness!

He had a prolific pen, and his writings best illumine his holiness. Although he was not a man of great scholarship, his works reflect deep insight and knowledge of the Scriptures. In writing about the mysteries of humanity’s redemption, Ephrem reveals a realistic and humanly sympathetic spirit and a great devotion to the humanity of Jesus. It is said that his poetic account of the Last Judgment inspired Dante.

It is surprising to read that he wrote hymns against the heretics of his day. He would take the popular songs of the heretical groups and using their melodies, compose beautiful hymns embodying orthodox doctrine. Ephrem became one of the first to introduce song into the Church’s public worship as a means of instruction for the faithful. His many hymns have earned him the title “Harp of the Holy Spirit.”

Ephrem preferred a simple, austere life, living in a small cave overlooking the city of Edessa. It was here that he died around 373.
