Thank you so much to all who came out and supported the 35th annual World’s Largest Block Party!

Just when you think or come to (almost) believe “no one cares,” God surprises us. I find myself going through this internal cycle probably multiple times throughout the course of a given week. And it’s probably been happening more now than ever before. It seems to always happen that when I find myself walking down the darker, more pessimistic road, an angel of God leads me to something greater and more hopeful.

I find myself to be unbelievably blessed to be a Catholic priest and to have the opportunities that I do to encounter the mystery of God in some of the finest human beings God ever put on this earth. I look back on this past week on Wednesday night when I made my way up to the north side of Chicago to visit Terry and Andrea. At the request made to our pastoral care ministry, I went as a priest to offer the anointing of the sick. Terry, who has been living with MS for most of his adult life, and his wife of 12 years Andrea have been faithful members of Old St. Pat’s for the past several years. Because Terry’s mobility has worsened, their participation in the Sunday experience has been limited to our Live Streaming of the 5:00 p.m. mass, which has become an incredible gift to many many people. I am so grateful we installed that tool a few years ago! It was a moment of Grace to sit with them this past Wednesday and to hear parts of their story related to their history, their professions, and their faith. While perhaps there was nothing necessarily profound said during our visit, I walked away totally amazed and grateful for the absolute dedication and fidelity this couple has for one another. The only words going through my head on the drive back home were “in sickness and health, for better or for worse” and seeing that mystery of Love being lived out right before my eyes in such a beautiful way. They care. Faith matters. It continues to make a difference in their lives.

The next day on Thursday I made my way back up to the north side to the Friendly Confines of Wrigley Field to see the Cubs (please don’t tell my southside friends!). I wish I could say that I went to really see the Cubs, but quite frankly that’s not true. The only reason this Sox fan went to Wrigley was to see my friend who is an MLB Umpire. Whenever he and his crew work a Chicago game (Cubs or Sox), he will often invite me to a game and to visit with them in their umpire locker room prior to the game. While I am a baseball fan and a sports enthusiast, what I find most interesting is that the conversation in the locker room is not always about sports or professional baseball. What I find intriguing every time I’ve gone to see my pal and his umpire colleagues is their craving for conversation about faith. Just when you think or (almost) believe that “no one cares,” God surprises us. That’s certainly true for this wonderful group of men. Faith matters. They care about the deeper things in life that go far beyond their profession as umpires calling balls and strikes. Life on the road, being away from family, isolation, and discovering God’s purpose and what really is sacred are just a few of the important issues that surround them.

There are a lot of things in this world that can bring us down and discourage us every day. Just look at any social media outlet or news feed to see the many challenges plaguing the world and the church. And while that can all be overwhelming, be mindful and aware of the many moments of Grace where the Mystery of God is so fully alive and so abundantly rich. These moments renew us and keep us Hopeful.

Have a great week and a Peaceful 4th of July.

REFLECTIONS ON “THE CASE AGAINST HOPE”
From a blog by Sr. Janet Schlichting on Oppeace.org published on June 12, 2019

I recently read a piece with the above title in the New York Times, written by Roxanne Gay, who offers an overview of worrisome situations in the government, international issues, immigration, wars, hunger, the climate crisis, and so on. She ponders what advice she would offer this year’s graduates if she were giving the address about their potential and their futures. One thing is sure: “I don’t traffic in hope. Realism is more my ministry than unbridled optimism. Hope allows us to leave what is possible in the hands of others.” She continues, aligning hope with apathy, complacency, and indecisiveness.

I think she actually is referring to optimism, a state which can be a bit thin and ethereal, and easily lost. I do not think she is describing the Hope we Christians share, which is far more a roll-up-the-sleeves and get-down to business venture. We call it a theological virtue, which means it is both gift and practice, shared with us by God and by us with each other; in the service of God’s future, the gathering of all creation, all peoples, into One—a future for which we have a shared longing but cannot fully embrace. Nonetheless, God has placed us, fired by the Spirit of Christ Jesus, in a world in which he himself suffered amid the trials of human life in an unfinished universe.

Encouraging each other, taking on the burdens as we can and forging on, struggling to remain open to God’s presence among us and God’s design revealed a little at a time to us and through us; praying, singing, preaching, listening, consoling those who are burdened and those who cannot see or feel at this moment, we are buoyed by Hope— not crushed by defeats, bemoaning our helplessness, or yielding to fears that keep us stopped or stuck or hiding.

A huge amount of work is involved in loving and serving God’s people, God’s creation. And here Hope helps us to discern our place in this divine-human entanglement. We are not in charge and we should not take ourselves so seriously. Our lives are a miniscule part of the thousand energies involved over the eons of the Trinitarian adventure; we will not finish the mission. We are weak, and have our faults, we anger and grieve one another, and will never perform to our own satisfaction.

In hoping, we welcome God as the energy, the source and the goal, who is ever gracious and merciful and knows and loves us deeply. Hope keeps us attentive to our limits, as well as to the special call we have, the specific Word we speak, each of us given unique purpose, a labor to love.

Emily Dickinson writes a tribute to hope that begins, “Hope is the thing with feathers/ that perches in the soul/ and sings the tune without the words/and never stops at all.”

Her poem charms me, and has its own truth. But I’m tempted to start with “Hope is the thing with muscles.”

Chicago Catholic Scripture School

The Chicago Catholic Scripture School is a program in Scripture study offered by Loyola University’s Institute of Pastoral Studies. Hosted at several parish locations throughout the Archdiocese, the Chicago Catholic Scripture School invites adult learners into an experience that:

• enriches your personal, spiritual and liturgical life,
• opens your heart and mind to the Word of God speaking to us today,
• provides you with the tools to deepen your understanding of Scriptural texts,
• helps build up a community of faith.

The program meets weekly in ten session modules with breaks between modules.
The first two year cycle focuses on study and prayer with the Bible in the Roman Catholic tradition, including a comprehensive study of some major books of the Old and New Testaments. For those who choose to go on, the program provides another two year course of study that delves further into the Old and New Testaments, covering all the other books in the Bible.

Our next series of sessions at Old St. Pat’s begins the second week in September.
The Chicago Catholic Scripture School has both a Certification Program and an audit option. We encourage you to learn more about these options by attending one of two preview sessions coming up in the next month.

Come to a Preview Session!
Experience the curriculum at one of two free preview sessions offered at Old St. Pat’s.

Today! Sunday, June 30, 6:15-7:45 pm or Sunday, July 14, 9:15-11:00 am
Both preview sessions will take place at the Old St. Pats’s Ministry Center located at 718 W. Adams Street.
Regular Sunday free parking is available.

THE NEXT CHAPTER

The OSP widow group, Next Chapter, took the water taxi to Ming Hin restaurant and enjoyed a meal and companionship. Discussion followed on experiences both funny and embarrassing while challenging ourselves to enjoy a meal out ‘on our own’.

We encourage all those who have been widowed to join us, a group that understands.

We are a group of Widows and Widowers creating new friendships to live, laugh and experience life through social interaction with friends from OSP living in and around the city and suburbs.
4 CORNERSTONES: REFLECTIONS ON THE KANSAS CITY WORKTOUR
By Joe Kennedy

The Kansas City Worktour set out uncertain about what our week would be like living in a Christian intentional community. Upon arriving, we were met on the sidewalk outside of Jerusalem Farm by the open arms of community members who greeted each one of us with a hug and “Welcome home.” We then learned about various practices Jerusalem Farm community members adhere to in order to be more environmentally friendly. Some of these practices, such as turning off the lights when you leave a room, were easy to adapt, but others were a bit more daunting. We were challenged to take only three showers all week, and these “showers” meant filling up a bucket with cold water and using a cup to pour it over yourself. These practices were meant to make us more environmentally conscious and highlight our use of resources like water. However, they were also meant to put us in solidarity with people in the community who had their water shut off and people worldwide who do not have access to resources we see as fundamental to our lifestyles.

Throughout the week we worked at various homes on the northeast side of Kansas City, and two stood out to me. The first was a home belonging to a multigenerational family from Myanmar. This family fled from a government that oppressed their ethnic group, lived in the jungle, and spent 23 years in a Thai refugee camp. They now work through the night to make ends meet. They greeted each of our crews with smiles and a home cooked lunch, and they gave us an opportunity to (unknowingly) eat chicken hearts. The other particularly memorable homeowner was an Ethiopian woman named Elizabeth. Elizabeth was incredibly gracious and grateful for our work; she kept saying she was “rich.” It was not monetary wealth, but she was rich with love and joy that she shared with us.

Throughout the week, we reflected on the four cornerstones of Jerusalem Farm: community, simplicity, prayer, and service. The most discussed was simplicity, as it is quite rare in our lives as teens and young adults. It is one thing to leave our phones at home for a week and live modestly, but what made our week great was all of us not thinking about what waited for us at home. We allowed ourselves to be fully invested in the present moment and learned how community, prayer, service, and simplicity create space for us to be more present to one another. This is a valuable lesson that we hope to bring home.

Joe Kennedy is a rising senior at Latin and Kansas City was his second Worktour.

PARTNER’S RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Registration for the 2019-2020 Partners Religious Education (PreK through 7th grade/Confirmation 2021 and Foundations Youth Ministry (9th-12th grades) is now open to all families. It will remain open until classes are full or July 31st. Currently, the 7th grade (Confirmation 2021) is now full.

To register you will need to have a myOSP profile. If you do not have an account, please follow these steps:
1. Go to www.oldstpats.org 2. Click on the “MyOSP Login” teal button in the top right-hand corner. 3. Click “Request Account” below the blue login button. 4. An activation email will be sent within 24 hours.

Once you have your profile, please email Katie Brandt at Family.ministry@oldstpats.org with your child’s names and birthdates. Once she has added them, you will be able to register and she will confirm they have been added. Then you will go to your myOSP profile homepage and click on FORMS. Then on Partners/Foundations 2019-2020 Registration.

The Archdiocese has changed the requirements for Confirmation which is now a TWO YEAR process. The preparation begins in Fall of 7th grade and Confirmation will take place in the Spring of their 8th-grade year.

It’s more important than ever to review the Partners calendar (see dates below) to see if the schedule works for your family (due to holidays and Chicago Marathon, the dates are atypical.) We know that Sunday obligations are demanding and perhaps our program and attendance policy might not work for your family. Knowing that attendance will be closely monitored and that each space is at a premium, take an honest look at this calendar. Because of our large waiting list and limited class sizes, at the end of the 2020 school year, those with more than the allowed three absences, will not be able to register for the following year.

Families attend the 9:30 mass and classes are held from 10:45 to Noon in the Frances Xavier Warde School on the first and third Sundays (with some exceptions) of the month from September through April.

PARTNERS CLASS DATES FOR 2019-2020:
Sept 8 & 22 | Oct 6 & 20 | Nov 3 & 17 | Dec 8 & 15 | Jan 5 & 12 | Feb 2 & 9 | Mar 1 & 15 | Apr 5 & 26

*Only 3 absences are allowed in any Partners grade level, sacraments included.
*Classes run until 12:00. Arriving late or leaving early will be considered an absence.

- One child: $410 • Each additional child: $150 • First Communion fee, per child: $ 85 • Reconciliation fee, per child: $ 85 • Confirmation One 2021 fee, per child $85 (paid in Year One only) • Foundations, per teen: $ 75

The fee for one child is $410 and each additional child remains $150. Sacramental Fees and Foundations fee remain the same.

REGISTERED OLD ST. PATRICK’S MEMBERS WILL RECEIVE A $50 DISCOUNT

What Would Jesus Do? Racism and Catholic Social Teaching
Speaker: Luana Lienhart, OSF, LCSW

Blending humor and pathos, we will explore the sin of racism through the lens of Catholic Social Teaching. We’ll discuss the structures that perpetuate racism, how we can work together to dismantle those structures, and have a great time doing it. It’ll be fun, we promise.

Luana Lienhart, a clinical social worker at an addiction treatment facility, and adjunct faculty at DePaul University in the Peace, Justice and Conflict Studies program. A Secular Franciscan, Luana recently joined Sherry Weddell’s Catherine of Siena Institute as a presenter in the Called & Gifted Program, assisting disciples of Jesus to discern their spiritual gifts.

Sun, July 21
Risking HOPE!
Speaker: Terry Nelson-Johnson

I heard some one say recently that we are living during an era when Hope is Fragile. Somewhat sadly, this resonated with me ---- I do think that Hope is a bit fragile these days. So . . . what better time to Gather Together and Risk Hope! Let’s get together and remind each other that, while seemingly fragile, Hope is also fierce and resilient and bold and surprising ---- and that it emerges from the most unlikely sources at the most unlikely times -- and that Hope seems so much more accessible when we gather and laugh and sing and tell stories . . . . And DANCE. Please make the effort to join us as, together, we RISK HOPE. Won’t be the same with out you -- literally.

Old St. Pat’s own Terry Nelson-Johnson will be speaking. His art is the written and spoken word. Through storytelling, poetry, and humor, Terry challenges us to enter more deeply into the mystery of grace, the mystery of spirit, the mystery of God. He speaks to communities around the country and writes for local and national publications. He is Resident Theologian and Animator of Faith here at Old St. Pat’s.

Sunday, Aug 4
Promoting a Culture of Encounter:
Pope Francis and the Social Gospel
Speaker: Rachelle Kramer

In his landmark document, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis writes, “Many try to escape from others and take refuge in the comfort of their privacy or in a small circle of close friends, renouncing the realism of the social aspect of the gospel… Meanwhile, the Gospel tells us constantly to run the risk of a face-to-face encounter with others, with their physical presence which challenges us, with their pain and their pleas.” From the beginning of his papacy, Pope Francis has championed the poor and marginalized and called us to do the same. And yet, his message is not new to the Catholic Church. This session will highlight the pope’s teachings on the Social Gospel and will provide the foundations from which it is based: Scripture, the life of the early church, and Catholic social teaching.

SPIRITUAL MAKEOVER: BECOMING A NEW CREATION
Friday, July 19

What is it about the quiet that invites us deeper – the darkness that wraps herself around us or the stillness that urges us to ponder? No doubt about it, something about the quiet calls us home.

“Come inside,” she whispers. “Come rekindle the fire.”

Join us for a women’s weekend of renewal in the midst of the city. We will pause together at the Cenacle Retreat House just minutes from Lake Michigan to assess our spiritual homes, consider opportunities for our own spiritual makeovers and strengthen our foundations. Together, we’ll pray ourselves into a new creation in anticipation of the coming Easter season.

HARMONY, HOPE & HEALING
Friday, July 5, 6:30 & Saturday, June 6, 7:30 | Jay Pritzker Pavilion, Millennium Park

Harmony, Hope & Healing Choir sings at Grant Park Music Festival in "emergency shelter intake form" by Gabriel Kahane. The performance begins with George Gershwin’s piano concerto, followed by the oratorio.

Both pieces use traditional forms, the concerto and oratorio, to tell uniquely contemporary stories. Gershwin’s blend of classical, jazz, and blues music speaks to the early 20th-century American experience of the melting pot of cultures.

The oratorio, written almost 100 year later, tells the story of a 21st-century American experience, of a person in need of shelter. It is a beautiful and haunting piece that examines the issues of extreme poverty, homelessness, and housing insecurity in this country.

The Harmony, Hope & Healing Choir will sing in the finale chorus. While our contribution may only be three minutes, our voices will have an impact that will last a lifetime. Join us for this experience!

The Harmony, Hope & Healing Choir is honored to participate in an evening of American music, with a poignant social message. We hope that you will join us! Visit harmonyhopeandhealing.org for more information.

In 1776, when the American Revolution was beginning in the east, another part of the future United States was being born in California. That year a gray-robed Franciscan founded Mission San Juan Capistrano, now famous for its annually returning swallows. San Juan was the seventh of nine missions established under the direction of this indomitable Spaniard.

Born on Spain’s island of Mallorca, Serra entered the Franciscan Order taking the name of Saint Francis’ childlike companion, Brother Juniper. Until he was 35, he spent most of his time in the classroom—first as a student of theology and then as a professor. He also became famous for his preaching. Suddenly he gave it all up and followed the yearning that had begun years before when he heard about the missionary work of Saint Francis Solano in South America. Junipero’s desire was to convert native peoples in the New World.

Junipero made the long trip to Mexico City to settle great differences with the military commander. He arrived at the point of death. The outcome was substantially what Junipero sought: the famous “Regulation” protecting the Indians and the missions. It was the basis for the first significant legislation in California, a “Bill of Rights” for Native Americans.

Because the Native Americans were living a nonhuman life from the Spanish point of view, the friars were made their legal guardians. The Native Americans were kept at the mission after baptism lest they be corrupted in their former haunts—a move that has brought cries of “injustice” from some moderns.

Junipero’s missionary life was a long battle with cold and hunger, with unsympathetic military commanders and even with danger of death from non-Christian native peoples. He baptized over 6,000 people and confirmed 5,000. His travels would have circled the globe. He brought the Native Americans not only the gift of faith but also a decent standard of living. He won their love, as witnessed especially by their grief at his death. He is buried at Mission San Carlo Borromeo, Carmel, and was beatified in 1988. Pope Francis canonized him in Washington, D.C., on September 23, 2015.
