One of the important lessons handed on to me from Fr. John Cusick that I’ve always treasured and I try desperately to remember is this: “when you’re looking out into the assembly on Sunday, don’t presume everyone is a regular and don’t presume everyone knows what you’re talking about!” He’s right. We are blessed with a church where people feel welcome and we have numerous ‘searchers & seekers’ who are coming here for the first time every week. In church life, and in any community, there’s nothing worse than feeling like an outsider. With that important lesson in mind, let me bring some historical perspective to what’s happening today at Old St. Pat’s with our guest speaker, Divahna Sullivan.

Way back in 2014, Old St. Pat’s embarked on a capital campaign (my first one as pastor of OSP) and we called it The Journey Forward. After consulting with the people of Old St. Pat’s, who were around at the time, it was decided that we would launch a campaign to achieve three goals: restore the old rectory so we could use it for other components of our mission, establish an endowment for Old St. Pat’s so we can secure and protect our future, and help transform lives in our kinship spirit with North Lawndale.

This component of the campaign, Impacting People, is the good news that Divahna is bringing to Old St. Pat’s today. Let me quickly explain. Back in 2014, as we were developing the campaign strategy and goals, through conversation with our friends at North Lawndale College Prep, we discovered that one of the biggest challenges facing many of their students in the high school was homelessness. At the time, the school administrators determined that close to 10% of the student population was considered “under-housed” (which is a nice way of saying homeless.) After hearing the testimony of one of their graduates who shared her heartbreaking story of doing her AP homework in a bathroom stall at a local shelter (because that was the only place in the shelter where the lights were left on at night), we were resolutely determined to do something about this stark reality and start chipping away at the problem of homelessness among students in North Lawndale.

Our campaign and the overwhelming generosity of the people of Old St. Patrick’s allowed us to buy a two-flat building in the neighborhood and renovate it so that it could be used as a home (not a shelter!) for students. Because we are not qualified or licensed to operate such a facility, we investigated and eventually found a great partner in The Night Ministry, a great local organization that does tremendous work for those who are homeless in our city. Borrowing from the image employed by the city in the aftermath of the great Chicago Fire of 1871, the home today is called Phoenix Hall and the Old St. Pat’s connection to this house happens through an established nonprofit called Empower to Succeed.

Phoenix Hall can accommodate up to eight students at any one time. While that may not seem like a lot, you need to remember two things: first, not every student needs Phoenix Hall for the long term… for some, it is only temporary. Secondly, we had to make sure we got this right and who knows, maybe another Phoenix Hall will open because of us.

So, for those who are new to Old St. Pat’s today, welcome! I heard Divahna speak at the annual dinner for The Night Ministry and I was so struck by her wonderful story. She comes to us today to share her story of great success. Going on to college on a “full-ride” is a dream-come-true… and the people of Old St. Pat’s made that dream a reality!

Thank you again and again for the wonderful generosity and passion that is characteristic of Old St. Pat’s!

Have a great week!

NEEDED – PARTICULAR KINDS OF SAINTS

Simone Weil once commented that it’s not enough today to be merely a saint; rather “we must have the saintliness demanded by the present moment.”

She’s surely right on that second premise; we need saints whose virtues speak to the times.

What kind of saint is needed today? Someone who can show us how we can actually forgive an enemy? Someone who can help us come together across the bitter divide within our communities and churches? Someone who can show us how to reach out to the poor? Someone who can teach us how to actually pray? Someone who can show us how to find “Sabbath” inside the bombardment of ten thousand television channels, a million blogs, and a billion tweets? Someone who can show us how to sustain our childhood faith amidst the sophistication, complexity, and agnosticism of our adult lives? Someone who, like Jesus, can go into singles’ bars and not sin? Someone who radiates a full-bodied humanity, even as he or she is, by faith, set apart? Someone who’s a mystic, but with a robust sense of humor? Someone who can be both chaste and healthily sexual at the same time?

The list could go on. We’re in pioneer territory. The saints of old didn’t face our issues. They had their own demons to conquer and aren’t rolling over in their graves, shaking their fingers in disgust at us in our struggles and infidelities. They know the struggle, know that ours is new territory with new demons to conquer and new virtues asked for. The saints of old remain, of course, as essential templates of Christian discipleship, living gospels, but they walked in different times.

So what kind of saints do we need today?

We need saints who can honor the goodness of the world, even as they honor God. We need women and men who can show us how to walk with a living faith inside a culture which believes that world here is enough and that the issues of God and the next life are peripheral. We need saints who can walk with a steady, adult faith in the face of the world’s sophistication, its pathological restlessness, its over-stimulated grandiosity, its numbing distractions, and its overpowering temptations. We need saints who can empathize with those who have drifted away from the church, even as they themselves, without compromise, hold their own moral and religious ground. We need young saints who can romantically re-enflame the religious imagination of the world, as once did Francis and Clare. And we need old saints, who have walked the gamut and can show us how to meet all the challenges of today and yet retain our childhood faith.

As well, we need what Sarah Coakley calls “erotic saints”, women and men who can bring chastity and eros together in a way that speaks of the importance of both. We need saints who can model for us the goodness of sexuality, who can delight in its human joys and honor its God-given place within the spiritual journey, even as they never denigrate it by setting it against spirituality or cheapen it by making it simply another form of recreation.

Then too we need saints today who can, with compassion, help us to see our blind complicity with systems of all kinds which victimize the vulnerable in order to safeguard our own comfort, security, and historical privilege. We need saints who can speak prophetically for the poor, for the environment, for women, for refugees, for those with inadequate access to medical care and education, and for all who are stigmatized because of race, color, or creed. We need saints, lonely prophets, who can stand as unanimity-minus one, and who can wage peace and who can point our eyes to a reality beyond our own shortsightedness.

And these saints need not be formally canonized; their lives need simply be lamps for our eyes and leaven for our lives. I don’t know who your present-day saints are, but I find have found mine among a very wide range of persons, old, young, Catholic, Protestant, Evangelical, liberal, conservative, religious, lay, clerical, secular, faith-filled, and agnostic. Full disclosure, the names I mention here are not persons whose lives I know in any detail. Mostly, I know what they’ve written, but their writings are a lamp which lights my path.

Among the younger voices whose lives and writings speak as well to a generation younger than mine, I would mention Shane Claiborne, Rachel Held Evans, James Martin, Kerry Weber, Trevor Herriot, Macy Halford, Robert Barron, Bryan Stevenson, Robert Ellisberg, Bieke Vandekerckhove, and Annie Riggs.

Maybe these aren’t your saints, fair enough. So lean on those who help light your path.

SPIRITUAL MAKEOVER: BECOMING A NEW CREATION

This week! Friday, July 19

What is it about the quiet that invites us deeper – the darkness that wraps herself around us or the stillness that urges us to ponder? No doubt about it, something about the quiet calls us home.

“Come inside,” she whispers. “Come rekindle the fire.”

Join us for a women’s weekend of renewal in the midst of the city. We will pause together at the Cenacle Retreat House just minutes from Lake Michigan to assess our spiritual homes, consider opportunities for our own spiritual makeovers and strengthen our foundations. Together, we’ll pray ourselves into a new creation in anticipation of the coming Easter season.

Location: The Cenacle Retreat House, 513 W. Fullerton Parkway, Chicago, IL  Contact: Laura Field, lafield@gmail.com. Please create an account on myOSP and register at bit.ly/spiritual_makeover

A YEAR OF BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS
Meeting our Neighbors Through Outreach at Old St. Pat’s

We as a Community have spent one full trip around the sun discovering whom our neighbors actually are and in turn loving on them!

Jesus has commanded us to “love our neighbors as ourselves” and in response, Outreach has:

Loved the homeless residents of the House of Mary & Joseph Shelter by working with the 4th graders of FXWS to collect linens and toiletries. We took a road trip to the shelter where we learned first hand about the homeless.

Loved folks with disabilities by helping host the Special Friends Mass, commissioning Trinity Volunteer Corps in Church, and every Wednesday afternoon working with the team to do special projects for OSP.

Loved our Sharing Parish of St. Agatha’s by hosting a Thanksgiving food drive through S.P.O.K.E.S. and sorted and distributed food for 150+ families in need.

Loved on the poor of Marillac House this past Easter again with Easter baskets, brunch, and shared camaraderie and joy.

Loved our corporate neighbors in the West Loop by working with new partners who want to give back to the marginalized and the poor by offering them opportunities to get involved.

You don’t have to look any further than the young adult leaders on Worktour to see how impactful of an experience one is. The abundance of former Foundations teens who return as leaders is evidence enough.

- Eoin Murphy

Being my first Worktour, I was so glad I was able to make so many friends, make new experiences, and have an amazing time. Through our service of the marginalized, I saw God in each person we served. Through their happiness and love, this Worktour allowed me to see we are all one people, brothers and sisters united in love and joy.

- Brody Hanlon

On this Worktour, I interacted with tons of people who needed and deserved our help. We all impacted others in some way, and they definitely affected us in amazing ways.

- Kendall Pollard

Being able to work face to face with people to help them was very refreshing. This was my favorite service trip I have done and the group here bonded very well.

- Quinn Anderson

My Cincinnati Worktour really made the people who went on it really close. It was a blast and I hope to have more fun on my next Worktour.

- Bob Greenlees

This was my first and last Worktour and I regret not having gone sooner. I would have to say that week was the closest I have ever been to God in my life.

- Will Carl

This Worktour we were able to serve people on a more personal level. This provided not only a great service experience but also a great learning experience we don't often get. The people I encountered on this Worktour certainly changed me as a person and inspired me to help those in need much more often.

- Molly Madden

The week our group spent in Cincinnati has impacted me in a way nothing has before. The bonds we've made will never be broken, and I hope the memories will never fade away. God showed himself in so many different ways over the week, and I can't wait to share my experiences with more!

- Maeve Healy

I was blessed to be a foundations teen myself and this was my first Worktour as an adult leader. It was truly amazing to witness an incredible group of teens come together and not only build new friendships but help those in need in the process.

- Marisa Martens

I am so incredibly grateful to the OSP community for supporting Foundations as we go on Worktour. I will truly never forget my experiences, in particular: volunteering at stepping-stones, a camp for children with disabilities. I was able to connect with the kids, especially Trenton when I spun him around in the pool and saw pure joy on his face.

- Moira Irwin

Worktour is very different on every single trip. This week, we were devoted to directly serving others less fortunate than many of us at Old St. Pat’s. My highlight was working with kids with different intellectual and physical disabilities and seeing the friendships we built within one day.

- Drew Heinig

In Cincinnati this week, we had the opportunity to truly encounter our brothers and sisters through service. We not only saw the faces of poverty, homelessness, food insecurity, and special needs but we spoke with them, learned their stories, and shared a bit of God's love.

- Ryan Malawy

Being able to go on Worktour has changed my life for the better. Opportunities like these are very rare. God is so present on these trips, it is quite the blessing.

- Erin Doherty

The service I did in Cincinnati impacted me in a manner greater than ever before. The face-to-face service, including soup kitchen work, helping people experiencing homelessness shop for groceries, and working at inner city summer camps, shone a light on how fortunate I am to grow up with such a privileged life. The work I did on this trip will stay with me forever.

- Leni Bryan

The Cincinnati Worktour is by miles the best Worktour there has ever been. Tau House, the parish we stayed within, was extremely generous in letting us into their home, and they are the ones who really made this trip shine. We've had such an amazing time here in Cincinnati, and I want another week here!

- Jack Gubbins
I am truly grateful for the opportunity to experience Worktour in Cincinnati. I was especially moved by the Tau House, their mission, and the way they structured our trip. I couldn’t have asked for a more spiritually enriching experience.

- Alex Patton-Van Buskirk

Foundations changed my life 10 years ago as a teen and has done so again this year as an adult. Without question, it is not hyperbole to say Foundations and Old St. Pat’s has been the greatest force for good in my life. Experiencing the Cincinnati Worktour with our Foundations teens has only codified this strongly held belief.

- Brian Jerger

This week in Cincinnati has been very influential in my daily life, how I perceive others, and what changes need to be made in society. I am trying to incorporate much more simplicity into my life, and we need to fight for society in lower-income neighborhoods.

- Lara Villano

I have been leading Worktour trips for 8 years, and every one is special, but this trip in Cincinnati brought a unique experience to life. 23 of us came together to serve the second most impoverished city in the country. We leave the city in a bit better shape, and all the better individually.

- John Doheny

I’ve grown up watching friends and family go on Worktour. I’ve been looking forward to it for what feels like my whole life. I’ve heard stories and traditions second and third hand, but as I look around the room of my phenomenal Worktourmates, I realize that none of that could have prepared me. The deep community we’ve formed this last week is something that I can share as my own stories. I thank the OSP community from the bottom of my heart for the support of Foundations and Worktour and the space we have to make these memories.

CAMPAIGN CORNER
Journey Forward and Phoenix Hall Updates

The Journey Forward Campaign began in 2014 with a bold vision of impacting people through meaningful outreach, impacting our mission by transforming the Rectory into a ministry center, and impacting the future by performing immediate campus enhancements and building an endowment fund to preserve and enhance Old St. Patrick’s Church for generations to come.

1. Impacting People

Together, we committed to providing new and expanded outreach to our homeless sisters and brothers, through Old St. Pat’s social concerns’ ministries. With your extraordinary investments, we purchased a home in North Lawndale – now known as Phoenix Hall – to provide transitional housing to teens experiencing homelessness. A committed group of Old St. Pat’s members and community volunteers created an independent nonprofit, Empower to Succeed, to shepherd this initiative in partnership with The Night Ministry and North Lawndale College Prep. As of this writing,

• Phoenix Hall is fully occupied, housing eight students and providing them with the wrap-around support they need to succeed in school;

• Six of those students graduated from high school. Four will attend four-year colleges or universities in the Fall and two will attend two-year colleges with the intent to transfer to a four year college or university.

• We’ve launched volunteer engagement opportunities at Phoenix Hall for Old St. Pat’s members. To learn more, please visit oldstpats.org/volunteer-opportunities-at-phoenix-hall or see page 13.

Phoenix Hall resident and recent North Lawndale College Prep graduate Divahna Sullivan reflects on what housing stability at Phoenix Hall and its many supports meant to her.

Being able to share my story is something I can honestly say I’m proud of. I can say it loudly without worrying about the dirt and negative emotions I felt during my homeless period. My mother always told me, “Education is our only gateway out of anything as African American women.” And still to this day, I heed those wise words. My education path to my current plans are very vital. Even though my attendance wasn’t the best through my high school career, I never passed a grade with anything less than a 3.0 GPA. I graduated from NLCP with a final 4.67 GPA for my second semester. As I am transitioning through adulthood, I will be attending Western Illinois University. I will be majoring in Psychology, and furthering my path in the "Women in Sciences" living-learning community. I plan on getting my masters degree and also volunteering to help homeless youth.
2. Impacting the Mission

Chances are you’ve experienced the beauty and functionality of the Ministry Center yourself since its completion. Through your generosity, we performed a complete rehab of the building, to restore its structural integrity and enhance its safety. In addition to providing residence to Fr. Hurley and visiting priests, we’ve welcomed hundreds of new members over the past year as they attended monthly dinners with Fr. Hurley and our wonderful hospitality volunteers. We’ve held intimate, special masses in the Fr. Dan Cantwell Chapel, and our music ministry enjoys its rehearsal space. We’ve held sponsor dinners prior to Deck the Hall, and small groups use the spaces for fellowship.

3. Impacting the Future

The Journey Forward Campaign also aimed to fund necessary immediate enhancements, and to build an endowment fund to preserve and enhance Old St. Patrick’s Church and campus for generations to come. With your support, we renovated the church hall with new floors and lighting, new bathrooms, a new kitchen, and a new bride’s room. We also installed a new HVAC system and energy-efficient lighting in the church, refurbished the sanctuary floors and stained glass windows, and made improvements to acoustics and the church façade.

As part of the campaign, we pledged to begin funding our endowment in FY21 and we have earmarked $1.4 million for that purpose. This endowment fund, along with the support of Crossroads Circle members and donors to the Old St. Pat’s Preservation Trust, will help preserve and protect our landmark church and historic campus for years to come.

We are so grateful to everyone who has so generously contributed to The Journey Forward! If you have questions regarding your pledge, please contact Molly Galo at mollyg@oldstpats.org or 312.798.2355.

Risking HOPE!

Speaker: Terry Nelson-Johnson

I heard some one say recently that we are living during an era when Hope is Fragile. Somewhat sadly, this resonated with me ---- I do think that Hope is a bit fragile these days. So . . . what better time to Gather Together and Risk Hope! Let’s get together and remind each other that, while seemingly fragile, Hope is also fierce and resilient and bold and surprising ---- and that it emerges from the most unlikely sources at the most unlikely times -- and that Hope seems so much more accessible when we gather and laugh and sing and tell stories . . . And DANCE. Please make the effort to join us as, together, we RISK HOPE. Won’t be the same with out you -- literally.

Old St. Pat’s own Terry Nelson-Johnson will be speaking. His art is the written and spoken word. Through storytelling, poetry, and humor, Terry challenges us to enter more deeply into the mystery of grace, the mystery of spirit, the mystery of God. He speaks to communities around the country and writes for local and national publications. He is Resident Theologian and Animator of Faith here at Old St. Pat’s.

Promoting a Culture of Encounter:

Pope Francis and the Social Gospel

Speaker: Rachelle Kramer

In his landmark document, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis writes, “Many try to escape from others and take refuge in the comfort of their privacy or in a small circle of close friends, renouncing the realism of the social aspect of the gospel… Meanwhile, the Gospel tells us constantly to run the risk of a face-to-face encounter with others, with their physical presence which challenges us, with their pain and their pleas.” From the beginning of his papacy, Pope Francis has championed the poor and marginalized and called us to do the same. And yet, his message is not new to the Catholic Church. This session will highlight the pope’s teachings on the Social Gospel and will provide the foundations from which it is based: Scripture, the life of the early church, and Catholic social teaching.

TRUST THE PROCESS II: MAKING A DIFFERENCE THROUGH YOUTH SPORTS

The goals for Trust the Process, I in 2018, sponsored by Endless Energy Sports and the North Lawndale Athletic and Recreation Association (NLARA), were to: (a.) provide safe, fun, structured recreation for the youth, (b.) build character and teamwork, (c.) sharpen their athletic skills, and (d.) contribute to violence prevention efforts in the community. The entire process was enjoyable and highly successful, attracting 75 young, polite, and engaged participants, 21 event support volunteers from Old St. Patrick’s that included eight alumni from the University of Notre Dame who served as coaches, and a few very happy spectator parents and grandparents as well. This year the additional goal of drawing in some 5th - 8th grade young neighbors from Old St. Patrick’s will elevate the virtue of kinship to an even higher level if there is a good response.

To DONATE, VOLUNTEER, or REGISTER a young participant, go to Trust The Process, II Interest Form at bit.ly/trusttheprocesstwo

(†) = Deceased

For Those Who Are Sick
Ms. Jimmie Ethridge, Jim Zwit, Infant
For Those Who Have Recently Died
Catherine–on Easter Sunday.

Now she would be treated as a slave. Because she would not work on Sunday, Kateri received no food that day. Her life in grace grew rapidly. She told a missionary that she often meditated on the great dignity of being baptized. She was powerfully moved by God’s love for human beings and saw the dignity of each of her people.

She was always in danger, for her conversion and holy life created great opposition. On the advice of a priest, Kateri stole away one night and began a 200-mile walking journey to a Christian Indian village at Sault St. Louis, near Montreal.

For three years she grew in holiness under the direction of a priest and an older Iroquois woman, giving herself totally to God in long hours of prayer, in charity, and in strenuous penance. At 23, Kateri took a vow of virginity, an unprecedented act for an Indian woman whose future depended on being married. She found a place in the woods where she could pray an hour a day—and was accused of meeting a man there!

Her dedication to virginity was instinctive: Kateri did not know about religious life for women until she visited Montreal. Inspired by this, she and two friends wanted to start a community, but the local priest dissuaded her. She humbly accepted an “ordinary” life. She practiced extremely severe fasting as penance for the conversion of her nation. Kateri Tekakwitha died the afternoon before Holy Thursday. Witnesses said that her emaciated face changed color and became like that of a healthy child. The lines of suffering, even the pockmarks, disappeared as penance for the conversion of her nation. Kateri Tekakwitha beatified in 1980 and canonized in 2012.
