Trinity Volunteer Corps promotes inclusion through volunteerism to help adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities avoid isolation while offering their unique gifts in service to others.

People with and without disabilities enjoy friendship and fellowship throughout the year while "partner volunteering" side by side, contributing to the success of Old St. Pat's special events and in support of charitable efforts throughout Chicago-land.

Wednesday afternoons at Old St. Pat's are blessed with TVC volunteers handling all sorts of projects and requests for help - everything from making food bags for the homeless to 4,000 Giving Tree ornaments.

I know that everyone (including myself) is lamenting the fact that we are shockingly at Labor Day weekend, what many have called the last official weekend of summer. Ba Humbug! It pains me even to type those words: last weekend of the summer. May this not be true! Putting aside what the calendar might say, I hope everyone has been able to get outside and enjoy what I think has been one of the most delightful strings of August nights I can remember. With low humidity and gentle breezes, these past several evenings have been the kind you want to bottle up and bring out again in January and February.

Last Sunday evening I found myself enjoying the brilliance of both a soothing evening of weather and the magnificence of our Chicago skyline. After the 5:00 p.m. mass, I quickly made my way over to the Chicago Hilton & Towers (where we host the Emerald Ball…which by the way is scheduled for October 18 this year!) to join in the celebration of Sister Rosemary Connolly’s 50th anniversary as the leader of Misericordia and her 70th anniversary as a Sister of Mercy. She’s quite a lady! I was among 1,500 people who celebrated on a Sunday evening the unbelievable accomplishments of this saintly woman and her beloved mission of Misericordia, what I have called before as “heaven on earth.” The environment they have created for the most vulnerable is second-to-none.

After the party, when I came out on to Michigan Avenue, greeted by the pleasant temperatures and the loveliness of the city, I decided that instead of taking a cab, I would start walking back to Old St. Pat’s. As I began my relaxed stroll along Michigan Avenue heading north, I quickly realized that because of my clerical attire (black suit & Roman collar), I was going to be a magnet. It didn’t take long. I couldn’t have been one block north of the Hilton when I was automatically greeted by Larry. A gentleman who presently lives in Englewood, Larry told me he was just spending the evening downtown and taking in the sights, sounds, and the nice weather of this August night, just like me.

Larry and I walked together for about a mile, talking about some of the Catholic people and places we know in common. Among the many people he mentioned, the one man he reverenced as saving his life was the late great Monsignor Ignatius McDermott, or “Father Mac” as we called by many. Larry told me about his years of sobriety and if it wasn’t for “Father Mac” who invited me into the Haymarket Center, he’s not sure where his life would be now. (For those not familiar with this, Father Ignatius McDermott was a legendary Chicago priest who ministered to the addicted and those who found themselves at rock bottom because of drugs and alcohol living right here in this part of the west loop. He started what is called Haymarket, a treatment center which is still located in the West Loop at Washington & Loomis. Father Mac died several years ago, but his legacy of caring for the addicted lives on in the mission of Haymarket).

Before parting ways at Adams and Michigan, I was struck by Larry’s story and his gratitude for a significant part of our Catholic movement. Larry’s life was changed for the better because of an invitation into something holy, healing, and lifegiving. It’s what I love about this gospel text today: invite! Keep inviting others into the banquet. If there’s one thing I see as the future hope of the church (at least at the local level) is how we continue to be people of invitation. Keep inviting people into a movement that is caring, hopeful, inclusive, and compassionate. This, we believe, is our mission at Old St. Pat’s and I hope you will keep that sense of invitation alive and strong.

Enjoy this long weekend.

Fr. Tom Hurley
Most Rev. John R. Manz
Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago

Over Labor Day weekend, I invite you to reflect on the tenets of our faith that proclaim that all workers have sacred worth and, therefore, they deserve dignity and respect. Catholic Social Teaching further instructs us that all workers should have safe work conditions and family-sustaining wages. Yet, as we know, the income gap between the wealthiest and poorest among us continues to grow, resulting in many of our hard-working families living below the poverty line.

In response to the growing income inequality around us, Pope Francis recently instructed, “We can no longer wait to solve the structural causes of poverty, to heal our society from a sickness that can only lead to new crises. Markets and financial speculation should not enjoy absolute autonomy. Unless we solve the problems of the poor we shall not resolve the world’s problems. We need programs, mechanisms and processes that lead to a better distribution of resources, the creation of jobs and all-around promotion of those who are excluded.

Over this holiday weekend I hope you will reflect on how we as Catholics are called upon to end the exploitation of workers. The Archdiocese is proud to be a partner with Arise Chicago, a 28 year-old interfaith organization that boasts Msgr. Jack Egan as one of its co-founders. Arise teaches workers their rights, builds leadership skills, and advocates for public policy changes – all of which transform lives and communities.  www.arisechicago.org

As a part of our Labor Day reflection, we need to turn away from the idolatry of wealth that can deceive us into believing that we are self-sufficient, and instead embrace the truth that we are all divinely connected to each other. We cannot live in a world without car mechanics, shoe salespersons, teachers, hotel workers, grocery store clerks, nurses, etc. I invite you to honor through your prayers and actions the dignity of workers, especially those who you encounter in your daily interactions. Reflect on how each of us, through our work, contribute our unique God-given gifts to the common good of humanity. Hold in prayer all of those longing for jobs and all of those who labor under poor working conditions. Our interconnectedness in faith and our dependence on each other in life give us a lot to celebrate together! Blessed Labor Day!

Sincerely,

Bishop John R. Manz
Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago

SILENCE, THE BODY AND THE MYSTERY OF WHOLENESS: A Contemplation Practice for Everyone
Facilitated by Al Gustafson

Sunday, September 29 | 12:30 – 4:30 pm
Sundays, October 6, 13, 20 | 6:30 – 8:30 pm
711 W. Monroe, Room 25A

Registration Fee: $50 | Visit bit.ly/wholeness-contemplation to register.

In our prayer, we want to experience God … an encounter with a Presence that is both greater than ourselves and at the same time, intimate and one with us. For many of us, however, prayer is little more than thinking thoughts about God. All our words and thinking can sometimes get in the way of the experience of God in our lives.

Join us for a three-week journey as we practice moving beyond thinking about God in our prayer, to explore silence and the body as pathways to experiencing the Presence of God. This is Christian contemplation and we will endeavor to make the practice simple and accessible.

Our lives can be noisy and fragmented, punctuated by obsessive thinking and to do lists. This is an invitation to experience territory that is untraveled by most of us: silence and an enhanced awareness of the bodies we inhabit. This risky terrain can lead us directly into the Mystery of Wholeness.

Our journey begins with a Sunday afternoon retreat followed by three Sunday evening meetings. The journey includes spending some time each day with God throughout the three weeks… some structure for your time with God will be offered.

Thinking about becoming Catholic? "Come and see ..."

The individuals we now call the “Apostles” were first told by Jesus to “come and see.” The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is an exploration and a time of discernment for those who would like to learn and experience more about Catholicism. Both unbaptized people and those baptized in a different Christian tradition are welcome to enter into this process and see where the Spirit leads them!

We will formally start our RCIA gatherings on Tuesday night, September 17, and continue to gather weekly throughout the fall, winter, and into the spring. For those who have continued to hear God’s call to more full participation in the Catholic Church, the Sacraments of Initiation will be celebrated at Old St. Pat’s on Holy Saturday night, April 11, 2020 at the Easter Vigil celebration.

If you or someone you know might be interested in participating in the RCIA or even simply "checking it out,” please go to our website oldstpats.org/sacraments/becoming-catholic-rcia or visit the interest form at bit.ly/RCIAInterest2019.

This worktour in San Juan was so incredibly eye opening and unique. Worktours are so effective in teaching social injustices and during this week it was maximized. We got to help people directly who were attempting to enter our country and facing incredible and unimaginable road blocks. It taught all of us the harsh realities, while also showing us the communities and organizations who dedicate their lives to helping these people in need.
- Ali Burns, Senior

The Texas Worktour allowed me to gain a much better understanding of what is going on at the border. This week challenged us in many ways, but I think we each grew from it and developed a greater perspective of the world around us.
- Matt Burns, Leader

This Worktour was eye opening. It was my third, final, and most impactful. I say that because of the time we spent at a respite center where processed immigrants go before they leave for a random city where their court date is. The people were tired, sick, exhausted and near defeat, and yet they were hopeful.
- Emmett Drew, Senior

On this worktour we saw a lot of run down communities and other bad situations people were in. But wherever we went, we saw people trying their best and also volunteers helping those in need. We worked with many great organizations and centers like Proyecto Azteca and Catholic Charities Respite Center. We learned a lot about the situation and helped out a lot, but there is still so much left to do.
- Evan Drew, Senior

Worktour season is my favorite time of the year. The trips truly change all of our lives. It’s an escape from our daily lives and a push into the lives of the most needy and unfortunate.
- Diego Fox, Senior

Getting to see immigration at the front lines through your own lens changed me for the better. So many have stories of suffering and hope for a better future.
- Steve Gee, Leader

This week truly did so much for me. It allowed me to get educated on and help out on the issues I never really understood before. Not only did this Worktour help me get closer to these issues, it allowed me to get closer to some amazing people in our foundations family. I’m so grateful I got to be apart of the Texas Worktour 2019.
- Emily Greifhahn, Junior

This Worktour allowed me to view the world with an entirely new perspective. I saw many people living in harsh circumstances and was shocked to see what really occurs on the border. Despite these depressing sights, I saw hope in the young children with whom we interacted and who told me all about their dreams for the future. This trip has inspired me to share what I’ve learned in Texas with those in Chicago and to spread awareness for the families that I had the pleasure of interacting with.
- Grace Kendrick, Senior

Texas worktour was eye opening. The phrase, “speak truth” was a constant reminder that the people we met and the stories we heard were the truth needing to be told. At the root of the border crisis we found out that Spanish or English speaking – we are all human and deserve to be treated and loved as such.
- Colleen Kelley, Leader

On worktour I learned so much about the border crisis that I had absolutely no idea about before we arrived. Coming to the U.S. is a mentally and physically difficult experience for those seeking asylum here. Worktour also provided an incredible opportunity for me to meet new people from all around the Chicagoland area that are all quickly becoming some of my closest friends. I will cherish the memories I made this week forever.
- Cece Lynch, Sophomore

Texas Worktour as been a crash course in what it means to truly love the stranger. Through our encounters with immigrants, our work with Proyecto Azteca and learning about issues at the border our hearts were broken and minds were opened to a new radical love.
- Ryan Malawy, Leader
Worktour is such an important event in my life. It allows me to experience other cultures and to give back. This trip was so important to me because it allowed me to make human connections with people who are going through immigration and struggling in ways that I can’t even imagine. It opened my eyes to a whole new world and made the whole idea of these struggles so much more real.
- Stella Micinski, Junior

This worktour was an incredible experience for me. The day that stood out to me the most was the day we spent at the respite center with people who had just been released from ICE detention centers. I spent the day helping families find clothing, since they had only been allowed to keep the clothes on their backs. The experience was challenging and stressful at times; no one spoke english so many spanish skills were put to the test but it was so rewarding.
- Deirdre Nash, Senior

On this worktour I got to have experiences I will never forget. I met some amazing people, and did some amazing work. I’m very excited to go on the next one as this one makes me feel like I have a much richer life.
- Luke Patton Van-Buskirk, Sophomore

Worktour opens the doors to help me help others. Opened doors for me to grow within my faith as well as learn. With this I am able to not only able to bring support in San Juan but also at home.
- Stuart Patton Van-Buskirk, Senior

I was so excited for my first worktour and it definitely did not disappoint. I learned so much and did so much on this trip. I’m so glad that I got the opportunity to go on this trip.
- Megan Salzman, Sophomore

Worktour was really important to me because my grandmother was a farmworker in the fields and Proyecto Azteca started with the help of Cesar Chavez and Dolores Huerta. I encountered the scared yet determined people who teach me how to show compassion to them. I am proud to have met the kind-hearted people who dream like my Abuela. I’ve hit my raizes (roots), I’ve hit my home.
- Monica Sanchez, Senior

This worktour meant a lot to me, because often media has biases and the border issue is one that is overshadowed by biases. I wanted to learn what was actually happening instead of being influenced by other people’s opinions. I also wanted to help people who are not nearly as fortunate as I am.
- Liam Soule, Junior

Though this group of teens and leaders were only at the border for one quick and fun-filled week, I can honestly say that we all left this trip with a new, more accurate, and troubling understanding of what it takes for immigrants and migrants trying to cross the American border. A lot of what we learned and encountered this week must be personally experienced; not one story summarizes the hardships and realities an entire community is faced with. However, the stories and experiences we did encounter, through troubling, empowered this passionate group to do something about it. Something we can do at home is show compassion for all.
- Kay Thursby, Leader

This being my last worktour, I have truly learned how much I have grown thanks to foundations and specifically, worktour. Worktour has encouraged me to be vulnerable, to go to the source of social injustices and how to talk to God in many different ways. For all of this I am truly grateful.
- Kevin Thursby, Senior

Dear Old Saint Pat’s community, thank you for the support to help the texas worktour. I’ve encountered people that need help from the soup kitchen to the respite center. Thank you for your donations and making this trip possible.
- Samnang Smith, Junior

I encountered God through my leaders, fellow teens and the many immigrants we had the opportunity to serve. The work we did in San Juan and the people we encountered has inspired me to get more involved with immigration organizations at home. Although my Spanish is a little rough, I was able to connect with many immigrants.
- Maggie Swanborn, Junior

AN OLD TESTAMENT BOOK CLUB?

It’s been said Catholics don’t read the Bible. Shatter the stereotype! We welcome you to join us for three new sessions of a slightly different approach to Scripture Study... think book club!

Participants are asked to pre-read the selection for each session. The readings are usually just a few pages and we’ll send an email reminder of what to read before each session. Then be ready to engage in lively discussion around some of the most familiar, and perhaps not so familiar, characters and stories from the Old Testament.

We Meet at the Ministry Center

JustFaith is a program that invites you to listen, learn, dialog, pray, and dive into how our faith calls us to respond to our world. Within a small group setting, we explore books, videos, prayer, and conversation about the most pressing injustices of the day, face-to-face encounters with our brothers and sisters experiencing poverty, and the history of the Christian tradition calling us to speak out against oppression in our world. We seek to be grounded in the realities of today while compassionately working to restore healing, kinship, and peace to those we meet. Old St. Patrick’s Church has offered the program for four years, and we are thrilled to begin a new JustFaith cohort in September 2019.

The full JustFaith program is available over three phases, allowing you to experience this transformational journey in a timeline that fits your life. In Phase 1 of JustFaith, Living Compassionately - Caring for the Poor, you will focus on poverty, consumerism, and the Gospel call to care for the poor. Each phase consists of eight sessions (Wednesday evenings at 6:30 pm) and an immersion event.

Cost: $15 registration fee plus the price of books ($25 - $40)

The Grief Support Group

The Grief Support Group, Companions on the Journey, has been organized for those who are grieving the death of a loved one: parent, spouse, significant other, child, family member, sibling, extended family member, friend… It hurts!

You may be experiencing some of the most powerful and painful feelings of your life. The many feelings of grief may seem uncomfortable and threatening to you. And, sadly, there are too few people who want to talk to you about this pain.

Support in dealing with the grief experience is a valuable way of helping yourself or someone you know. Support groups provide an opportunity to better understand the wide range of feelings and behaviors associated with grief. More importantly, support groups offer a safe place where people can come together for mutual support, to learn that their feelings are normal, and that one need not be alone.

The 6-session program is offered over the course of six consecutive weeks. Our groups are small by design so that they are comfortable and informal. The group meets at the Jack Wall Mission Center, 711 West Monroe Street.

The next group will begin on Wednesday, September 18, from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. For more information, or, to reserve a place in this group, you may contact Bernadette Moore Gibson, Pastoral Care Ministry, at (312) 798-2358. You can also email your inquiries to: bernadetteg@oldstpats.org

Women and Men of Faith

Saint Teresa of Calcutta
(d. September 5, 1997)

Saint of the Day for September 5

Mother Teresa of Calcutta, the tiny woman recognized throughout the world for her work among the poorest of the poor, was beatified October 19, 2003. Among those present were hundreds of Missionaries of Charity, the order she founded in 1950, as a diocesan religious community. Today the congregation also includes contemplative sisters and brothers and an order of priests.

Born to Albanian parents in what is now Skopje, Macedonia, Gcea (Agnes) Bojaxhiu was the youngest of the three children who survived. For a time, the family lived comfortably, and her father’s construction business thrived. But life changed overnight following his unexpected death.

During her years in public school, Agnes participated in a Catholic sodality and showed a strong interest in the foreign missions. At age 18, she entered the Loreto Sisters of Dublin. It was 1928 when she said goodbye to her mother for the final time and made her way to a new land and a new life. The following year she was sent to the Loreto novitiate in Darjeeling, India. There she chose the name Teresa and prepared for a life of service. She was assigned to a high school for girls in Calcutta, where she taught history and geography to the daughters of the wealthy. But she could not escape the realities around her—the poverty, the suffering, the overwhelming numbers of destitute people.

In 1946, while riding a train to Darjeeling to make a retreat, Sister Teresa heard what she later explained as “a call within a call.” The message was clear. I was to leave the convent and help the poor while living among them. She also heard a call to give up her life with the Sisters of Loreto and instead, to “follow Christ into the slums to serve him among the poorest of the poor.”

After receiving permission to leave Loreto, establish a new religious community, and undertake her new work, Sister Teresa took a nursing course for several months. She returned to Calcutta, where she lived in the slums and opened a school for poor children. Dressed in a white sari and sandals—the ordinary dress of an Indian woman—she soon began getting to know her neighbors—especially the poor and sick—and getting to know their needs through visits.

The work was exhausting, but she was not alone for long. Volunteers who came to join her in the work, some of them former students, became the core of the Missionaries of Charity. Others helped by donating food, clothing, supplies, and the use of buildings. In 1952, the city of Calcutta gave Mother Teresa a former hostel, which became a home for the dying and the destitute. As the order expanded, services were also offered to orphans, abandoned children, alcoholics, the aging, and street people.

For the next four decades, Mother Teresa worked tirelessly on behalf of the poor. Her love knew no bounds. Nor did her energy, as she crisscrossed the globe pleading for support and inviting others to see the face of Jesus in the poorest of the poor. In 1979, she was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. On September 5, 1997, God called her home. Blessed Teresa was canonized by Pope Francis on September 4, 2016.
