TODAY WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN US FOR A COMMUNITY FORUM WITH MAYOR LORI LIGHTFOOT

Our North Lawndale neighbors request the presence of Old St. Patrick’s Church members in the spirit of kinship and solidarity as the Mayor addresses three central issues: reclaiming communities, justice for the mentally ill, and reducing gun violence. Please join us.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2019 | 5 - 6:30 PM
DRW COLLEGE PREP, 931 S. HOMAN AVENUE, CHICAGO

This is just the first of many Send Forth Sundays!
I can’t remember the exact date or how many years ago it happened. As we all know, after a while, all the months and years seem to mix and keeping track of everything becomes quite a chore. I’m talking about our decision to become involved with the neighborhood of North Lawndale, or what we at Old St. Pat’s affectionately call The Kinship Initiative. Please allow me in this very short column to “reorient” us on what we mean in terms of Kinship with a neighborhood.

I think (because I’m not sure) that it was about 10 years ago we welcomed and hosted Father Greg Boyle SJ to Old St. Pat’s for a night of reflection… it may have been during Lent. Greg is the founder of what is known as Homeboy and Homegirl Industries, an organization he created to help reach out to young people involved in gang life in Los Angeles. What began as an alternative to gang life through the help of a job at an old bakery has turned into one of the most vibrant, successful nonprofits in the country. Greg Boyle stood on the altar of Old St. Pat’s and kept using a word that penetrated the hearts of those who were in attendance, including me: KINSHIP. He wasn’t asking the people of Old St. Pat’s to start another “project” or some kind of “feel good” outreach program. Greg challenged us in terms of this city and how we build relationships with people here, especially with those in neighborhoods that we typically avoid, rather than enter.

We took his words to heart and through a connection some of us on staff had with a great man of Faith by the name of John Horan, the founder of the charter school, North Lawndale College Prep, we began to explore our potential relationship with this historic and uniquely challenged neighborhood of our city, just less than two miles away from this church. I can remember that it was on a Sunday night, after the 5:00 mass, we held a meeting in the church hall to roll out our passionate desire, but totally disorganized unplanned ideas, around this Kinship idea with the area known as North Lawndale. Somewhere between 350 to 400 people showed up that night. It was a big, impressive crowd. We ran out of chairs and people were sitting on the floor in Hughes Hall. It was a very clear and loud message that Old St. Pat’s was making: We want to be in Kinship with North Lawndale. We weren’t sure where we were going with this, but we said we wanted to go somewhere.

A couple of years later, we hired Vince Guider as a full-time member of the Old St. Pat’s team to fully direct our Kinship Initiative. He was one of the best hires we ever made! His goodness, passion, wisdom, and ability to connect to people, places, events, and organizations in North Lawndale has been invaluable. Vince’s great leadership is the reason that Old St. Pat’s is both welcomed and well known in the NL neighborhood. Although our map of where we are headed has never been very clear or precise, Vince has done an excellent job of keeping Old St. Pat’s on the radar of many people.

I’m writing about our Kinship Initiative because I feel that we have to continually remind ourselves of the commitment we made 10 years ago. We said that we wanted to be in North Lawndale… and we are. And the people and energy of North Lawndale are in us! As Boyle said, quoting Cesar Chavez: it’s mutual.

This afternoon at 5:00 p.m. I am going, along with about 75 people from Old St. Pat’s, to attend a community meeting with Mayor Lori Lightfoot. The North Lawndale Community Coordinating Council (NLCCC) are hoping for 1000+ people (residents and friends) to attend. The topics to be discussed include housing and fostering equity for poor neighborhoods, treating not incarcerating those with mental illness, and reducing gun violence. I’m told the meeting goes until 6:30.

Why are Old St. Pat’s people attending? Just to be there and show our solidarity (or kinship) with our neighbors and friends. Nothing more than that. The NLCCC really want us to be there, by the way. It’s not a protest or a political rally. It’s a listening session for people of goodwill and the leader of the city to come together.

Our 2020 theme around here is going to be: Have We Forgotten That We Belong To Each Other? Our Kinship Initiative reminds us every day that we shouldn’t forget that we really do belong to each other. It’s more than some nifty idea a church came up with. It’s our call as Christians that comes from Jesus.

Come tonight if you can. This gathering will be at the DRW College Prep, 931 S. Homan.

Have a great week.

Father Tom Hurley
Paradoxes and Human Dignity

By Emmett Drew

Emmett Drew is a senior at Hinsdale Central High School. Texas was Emmett’s third Worktour.

The crisis on the border between Texas and Mexico is one of the messiest, politicized, and misunderstood issues that we regularly discuss. So naturally, Foundations and Old Saint Patrick’s Church sent nineteen teenagers and six young adult leaders to see what we could learn and how we could help.

The week started with an early flight from Midway to San Antonio airport. Upon landing in San Antonio the teens needed to kill some time while we waited for the leaders to deal with the paperwork of renting the vans. Naturally, we paired off and played a twenty-person, ten team game of Uno. Although it happened early, this moment exemplified how the group came together.

We spent Monday morning listening to a presentation on the history of immigration policy in the Rio Grande Valley from the organization we would be working with for the week, Proyecto Azteca. Proyecto Azteca is a non-profit construction company located in San Juan, TX that serves low-income families in colonias or communities and other rural areas in Hidalgo County. Monday afternoon we went on a tour of a colonia or neighborhood made up of lower-income families. Tuesday started with a tour of the various and rather complex system of border walls and a visit to La Lomita Chapel. La Lomita is a historic chapel that has nearly been walled off to the public multiple times in attempts to secure the border despite the chapel being on the American side of the Rio Grande River which serves as the border between the United States and Mexico.

Finally, on Tuesday afternoon we got to work, painting buildings on Proyecto Azteca’s campus. Although we did not have the opportunity to directly help citizens of Hidalgo County at the beginning of the week, the work we put in would go in the “bank” as sweat hours for a client of Proyecto Azteca that couldn’t work on their own house. We worked on Proyecto Azteca’s Campus until Thursday afternoon when we went to volunteer at a soup kitchen at a local church. Here we helped operate a regular food pantry and soup kitchen for the community of Hidalgo County.

On Friday we spent our whole day working at a Respite Center which is where processed immigrants go for help before they are either bused or flown to the city where their court date is. At the Catholic Charities Humanitarian Respite Center, we helped people coming to our country to get a clean set of clothing, a new pair of shoes, and a meal.

My experience in Texas was one of paradoxes, it was full of joy and heartbreak, confusion and understanding. If I’m being totally honest it was outright dumbfounding. For most of the week, I was caught between enjoying the time away from all the distractions of life at home (one of my favorite parts of Worktour) and trying to process the fact that the people coming to my country were not being treated with the respect and dignity they deserve as fellow human beings.

The one thing that Texas Worktour reminded me constantly throughout the week was, that no matter how different our lives may seem from others there is a universality to life. We learn about Catholic Social Teaching in Foundations and how each person is to be treated with dignity. We all like to play, we all like to laugh, we all just want what is best for ourselves and our families, and above all, everyone deserves to be treated with the same level of dignity and respect, no matter who they are or where they are from.

GREEN NOTES FROM OSP GREEN TEAM: The Green Team Summit and Options for Green Advocacy

“Together we are powerful.” – Toni Preckwinkle, President of the Cook County Board, at the Green Team Summit, September 14, 2019

On Saturday September 14, OSP Green Team attended Faith in Place’s Green Team Summit at the Field Museum from 10 am to 5 pm. This inspiring gathering featured participants from as far away as Kenya, and as close as the Chicago Loop. This is the fourth annual Green Team Summit organized by Faith in Place, and in the view of many, the best to date.

During the summit, we heard from Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle about the County’s commitment to be carbon neutral by 2050. Meteorologist and environmental lawyer John Lee explained the impact of climate change on global migration patterns. Christina Krost from Faith in Place shared creative ideas on reducing, reusing, and recycling, all springing from a religious perspective. We learned about the environmental racism timeline, including the birth of the movement in 1982 in Warren County, North Carolina, when local churchgoers successfully opposed the siting of a landfill in their poor, overwhelmingly black community.

Other workshops covered organizing green teams, just food, nature-centered worship, solar for houses of worship and residences, youth empowerment, and faithful advocacy. Rev. Dr. Clare Butterfield, co-founder of Faith in Place, delivered the keynote address. The day ended with an energetic performance by Xochitl-Quetzal Danza Azteca, a local troupe dedicated to preserving the centuries old dance traditions of indigenous Mexico, and to celebrate our connection to the natural world. The summit renewed our commitment to faith-based sustainability in our personal lives, our places of worship, and our civil institutions.

Green Advocacy and Living our Truth: “Together We Are Powerful”

Green Advocacy involves pushing for legislative changes that reflect our environmental justice values. Here are two ways to get involved with Green Advocacy in the coming weeks.

- Faith in Place is sponsoring a Fall Advocacy Day on October 29, 2019 from 6:30 am to 6:00 pm. Faithful people from all across the state will board buses headed for Springfield, to meet with legislators in support of the Clean Energy Jobs Act. This legislation will move Illinois into using 100% renewable energy by 2050. Some provisions of this far-reaching bill: changes to the utility rate structure to encourage off-peak energy use; and rebates for construction of electric vehicle charging stations, dramatically increasing access to electric transportation. For more information, go to faithinplace.org/events/fall-advocacy-day-2019
- S. 1743, the International Climate Accountability Act, requiring the administration to develop a plan to meet its commitments under the Paris Agreement, and prohibiting the use of federal funds to withdraw from that accord, is pending in the Senate. This bill is supported by the U.S. Council of Bishops; Senator Dick Durbin is a co-sponsor. Contact your Congressional representative and Senator Tammy Duckworth to urge their support.

OSP Green Team Welcomes You!

Are you inspired by the message of Laudato Si? Want to be a faithful steward of our common home? We welcome your energy, your ideas, and your commitment. Please contact Kayla Jackson, Social Justice Coordinator for more information about OSP Green Team. Kayla can be reached at kaylaj@oldstpats.org
Old St. Pat’s is happy to host the third session of our Immigrant and Refugee Rights education series, “Separating Fact from Fiction.”

In this presentation, “Immigration and the Economy,” we will address common myths and misconceptions surrounding the impact immigrants and immigration have on the U.S. economy, labor force and public benefits system. Are immigrants truly a public charge? Do immigrants really take away jobs from American workers? Join us to find out for yourself.

The evening will open with a short presentation by Irakere Picon, Director of Legal Services for the Illinois Business Immigration Coalition and will be followed by panel discussion including leaders in both business and labor.

FOOD, FUN, AND FAITH WITH OUR NORTH LAWNDALE NEIGHBORS
By Jim McClean

A fun and committed group of OSP parishioners meet at My Brother’s Kitchen (“MBK”) in North Lawndale for a day of cooking and kinship on the fourth Saturday of every month. This lively team prepares and serves over 200 meals for neighbors in and around North Lawndale.

Our mission is simple: to feed folks both spiritually and nutritionally. Every August MBK also hosts a barbeque at the North Lawndale “Party on Pulaski” sponsored by the Young Men’s Education Network (YMEN)/MBK. On Saturday, August 24 our MBK Service Team – with both new and veteran OSP volunteers – grilled and served cheeseburgers, salads, chips, watermelon and cookies to over 300 attendees. It was a sunny and fun-filled summer picnic which also featured games, face-painting, and pony rides. What a great event to kick off the return to school for the families of North Lawndale.

My personal involvement with OSP’s North Lawndale Kinship Initiative began three years ago. I had just completed Greg Boyle’s book entitled “Tattoos on the Heart” in which he urged Christians to leave our safe comfort zones and venture “out to the fringes” to make even a small impact on others whose lives may not be as comfortable or safe as our own. An OSP bulletin request for MBK volunteers caught my attention. I signed up and found myself warmly welcomed and even useful in cooking and serving food at MBK on a Saturday morning. I was inspired by the jovial commitment of the other OSP volunteers and was rewarded by the gratitude and warm kinship bestowed on me by those we were serving. The most powerful moment is in gathering with hundreds of our friends and praying together for God’s blessing over the home-cooked meals and kinship being shared.

Much gratitude to Grace and Patty Brick for initiating and leading MBK, one of many North Lawndale Kinship Initiative ventures. It has connected so many in the OSP community with the people North Lawndale community in a marvelous way. The blessings we at OSP receive are far greater than those we provide.

We welcome your participation at My Brother’s Kitchen, whether you can volunteer monthly or even just occasionally. Please contact either Jim McLean (jmclean104@aol.com) or Allyn Pilewski (apilewski@me.com), MBK Coordinators for OSP for more information or to volunteer.

Jim McClean and family are active Old St. Patrick’s members.

“So, Do We Have a Plan?”

with Bob Kolatorowicz

We make plans for the things that are important to us.

We make plans to see friends and family. We plan a career path. There are wedding plans and plans for the education of our children. We plan vacations. We have retirement strategies. We draw up wills. Each New Year’s Day, brimming with resolve, we make plans for the coming year.

Planning is a responsible thing to do. And usually, we feel a little more comfortable when we know there is a plan. But for all our planning, how much do we consider planning our own spiritual development? Should we? And if so, what would a plan for spiritual growth look like? Interesting questions to consider. Please join us for an evening of communal pondering around our Catholic wisdom and practices for spiritual growth.

Bob Kolatorowicz directs the Adult Education/Spirituality Ministries at Old St. Patrick’s Church.

Format: 6:30 pm Refreshments and Welcome | 7:00 pm Presentation | 8:15 pm Prayer and Announcements | 8:30 pm Program concludes. A free-will donation to cover our meeting room costs is much appreciated.

SILENCE, THE BODY AND THE MYSTERY OF WHOLENESS:
A Contemplation Practice for Everyone Facilitated by Al Gustafson

Sunday, Sept. 29 | 12:30 – 4:30 pm & Sundays, October 6, 13, 20
6:30 – 8:30 pm | 711 W. Monroe, Room 25A

Registration Fee: $50 | Visit bit.ly/wholeness-contemplation to register.

In our prayer, we want to experience God … an encounter with a Presence that is both greater than ourselves and at the same time, intimate and one with us. For many of us, however, prayer is little more than thinking thoughts about God. All our words and thinking can sometimes get in the way of the experience of God in our lives.

Join us for a three-week journey as we practice moving beyond thinking about God in our prayer, to explore silence and the body as pathways to experiencing the Presence of God. This is Christian contemplation and we will endeavor to make the practice simple and accessible.

Our lives can be noisy and fragmented, punctuated by obsessive thinking and to do lists. This is an invitation to experience territory that is untraveled by most of us: silence and an enhanced awareness of the bodies we inhabit. This risky terrain can lead us directly into the Mystery of Wholeness.

Our journey begins with a Sunday afternoon retreat followed by three Sunday evening meetings. The journey includes spending some time each day with God throughout the three weeks… some structure for your time with God will be offered.

Saint Pio of Pietrelcina

(d. September 23, 1968)

In one of the largest such ceremonies in history, Pope John Paul II canonized Padre Pio of Pietrelcina on June 16, 2002. It was the 45th canonization ceremony in Pope John Paul’s pontificate. More than 300,000 people braved blistering heat as they filled St. Peter’s Square and nearby streets. They heard the Holy Father praise the new saint for his prayer and charity. “This is the most concrete synthesis of Padre Pio’s teaching,” said the pope. He also stressed Padre Pio’s witness to the power of suffering. “If accepted with love, the Holy Father stressed, such suffering can lead to a privileged path of sanctity.”

Many people have turned to the Italian Capuchin Franciscan to intercede with God on their behalf, among them was the future Pope John Paul II. In 1962, when he was still an archbishop in Poland, he wrote to Padre Pio and asked him to pray for a Polish woman with throat cancer. Within two weeks, she had been cured of her life-threatening disease.

Born Francesco Forgione, Padre Pio grew up in a family of farmers in southern Italy. Twice his father worked in Jamaica, New York, to provide the family income.

At the age of 15, Francesco joined the Capuchins and took the name of Pio. He was ordained in 1910 and was drafted during World War I. After he was discovered to have tuberculosis, he was discharged. In 1917, he was assigned to the friary in San Giovanni Rotondo, 75 miles from the city of Bari on the Adriatic.

On September 20, 1918, as he was making his thanksgiving after Mass, Padre Pio had a vision of Jesus. When the vision ended, he had the stigmata in his hands, feet, and side.

Life became more complicated after that. Medical doctors, Church authorities, and curiosity seekers came to see Padre Pio. In 1924, and again in 1931, the authenticity of the stigmata was questioned; Padre Pio was not permitted to celebrate Mass publicly or to hear confessions. He did not complain of these decisions, which were soon reversed. However, he wrote no letters after 1924. His only other writing, a pamphlet on the agony of Jesus, was done before 1924.

Padre Pio rarely left the friary after he received the stigmata, but busloads of people soon began coming to see him. Each morning after a 5 a.m. Mass in a crowded church, he heard confessions until noon. He took a mid-morning break to bless the sick and all who came to see him. Every afternoon he also heard confessions. In time his confessional ministry would take 10 hours a day; penitents had to take a number so that the situation could be handled. Many of them have said that Padre Pio knew details of their lives that they had never mentioned.

Padre Pio saw Jesus in all the sick and suffering. At his urging, a fine hospital was built on nearby Mount Gargano. The idea arose in 1940, a committee began to collect money. Ground was broken in 1946. Building the hospital was a technical wonder because of the difficulty of getting water there and of hauling up the building supplies. This “House for the Afeiliation of Suffering” has 359 beds. A number of people have reported cures they believe were received through the intercession of Padre Pio. Those who assisted at his Masses came away edified; several curiosity seekers were deeply moved. Like Saint Francis, Padre Pio sometimes had his habit torn or cut by souvenir hunters.

One of Padre Pio’s sufferings was that unscrupulous people several times circulated prophecies that they believed originated from him. He never made prophecies about world events and never gave an opinion on matters that he felt belonged to Church authorities to decide. He died on September 23, 1968, and was beatified in 1999.
