

Three of Three Feasibility Study Feedback Updates: Beautiful Worship

Dear Old St. Pat's Community,

Many of you shared how much you value the intention and beauty that define worship at Old St. Pat's. Behind every Mass are hours of thoughtful planning and preparation, all done with joy, love, and respect to honor the mystery of the Eucharist and celebrate our communion in Christ. Our shared liturgical life is central to who we are.

We were moved by your appreciation for liturgies that support us in living out the gospel call in today's world while working against polarization. You also expressed a desire for music that is fresh and vibrant, while still holding space for the Celtic sounds and long-time Old St. Pat's favorites you cherish. Our music team embraces the challenge to balance these, along with the many other factors that influence our sung prayer.

You may have noticed that our music ministry has begun sharing more about how and why music is chosen by highlighting how selections connect to the liturgy and composers that reflect our commitment to radical inclusivity. We will continue this practice, ensuring that every note we sing reflects both who we are and what we believe.

We also heard how grateful many of you are for the livestream. Especially when you're unable to join us in person or are caring for a loved one at home. At the same time, some of you asked why the way you access the livestream had to change. Last year, we were informed that our previous streaming platform would be discontinued. Knowing how important livestream is to our community, we conducted an extensive search, evaluating more than 50 criteria to ensure a reliable, high-quality experience. Thanks to that work and to a dedicated support team we're proud to share that livestream viewership has actually grown since the transition.

To deepen that commitment, we're excited to announce the launch of the Old St. Pat's Livestream App, now available on the Apple and Android app stores, as well as on Amazon Firestick and Roku for TV. You can learn more about the apps at livestream.oldstpats.org. And if you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to us at info@oldstpats.org. We're here to help.

Beautiful worship in our sacred space is truly the heart of Old St. Pat's. Beginning each week together praying, singing, and gathering in community is what makes this place so special.

While this message concludes our feedback series from the feasibility study, please know that our commitment to listening continues. Your voice shapes our mission, and your presence gives it life. Thank you for walking this journey together in hope, in faith, and in love.

With gratitude and hope,

Fr. Pat
